Two "crazy" coaches . . . Mr. Belcher and Mr. Quinney.

BECAUSE of your understanding of youth . . .

BECAUSE of your valuable help
in the Physical Education Department and the Youth Center . . .

BECAUSE of your ability to guide us . . .

We dedicate this '57 Southerner
to you . . .

OFFICE OF
THE PRINCIPAL

MR. ALLEN HYATT

Cullman High School

Box 318

Cullman, Alabama

TELEPHONE 318

To All Students of Cullman High School:

It is a well accepted fact that sound, well-planned and well-balanced investments yield satisfactory long range results. This applies equally to the time, energy and effort invested in high school. May your investment in your school life prove to be sound and fruitful. Whether you continue in school, enter into the business world, or whatever you choose to do, my hopes are that you will be happy and prosperous even beyond your fondest dreams.

Handicapped School

For three years a special school for the physically handicapped children has been conducted at Cullman High School where children who are physically handicapped are trained to their fullest capacity.

After an examination by a medical staff representing the Crippled Children's Clinic in Birmingham, Alabama, a child who is physically unable to attend regular classes and is mentally capable of learning may attend this special school.

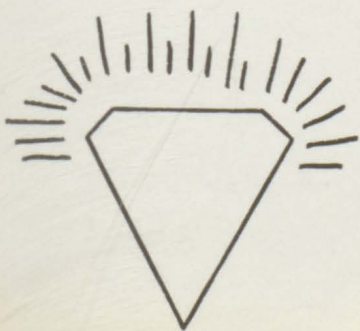

Here there are nine children whose ages range from 5 to 15. Those attending are: Connie Waldrop age 5, Lavonne Moon age 6, Alinda Posey age 7, Marlene Chambers age 14, Delene Lankford age 15, Terry Lee age 6, Charlie Goodwin age 6, and David Evans age 9.

As the last shipment of the 1957 Southerner goes to press we can breathe a sigh of relief. We feel we have accomplished and learned much. We also know it would not have been possible without the help of many people

Thanks to the C H S students especially the seniors who sold ads. Johnny Nesmith and Patty Swann were high with $170 and Annual Editor George Noneaker and Jane Ann Merrill came second with $150. Thanks also to the other students who stand behind the Southerner.

Thanks to our photographers, Mr. Lee Schlosser, Mr. Bill Herfurth, and Mr. Herbert Wagner, for helping us make the pictures.

Thanks to the advertisers who contributed so much.

Thanks to Mr. Allen Hyatt for his willingness to cooperate

Thanks to our secretaries, Helen Arndt and Mattie Lee Tubbs, for always being there to assist us.

Thanks to those teachers who have been so considerate.

Thanks to Mrs. Mabel Bailey, our staff advisor, for her guidance and leadership.

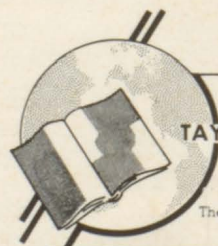

Thanks to the staff for its ability to work together and its determination.

Our deepest appreciation also goes to the people who helped that we have not listed. Without cooperation we could not have published the 1957 Southerner.
