SOUTHERNER STAFF CHOOSES THEME

After attending a yearbook seminar this year in Cullman, the Southerner staff knew it was time to choose a theme for the 1992 Southerner. Over a period of time, it was decided that "It's Not All Black and White" combined with a newspaper effect would best suit CHS this year. The layouts provided a sense of organization and unity while "It's Not All Black and White" portrayed the hidden message of CHS students.

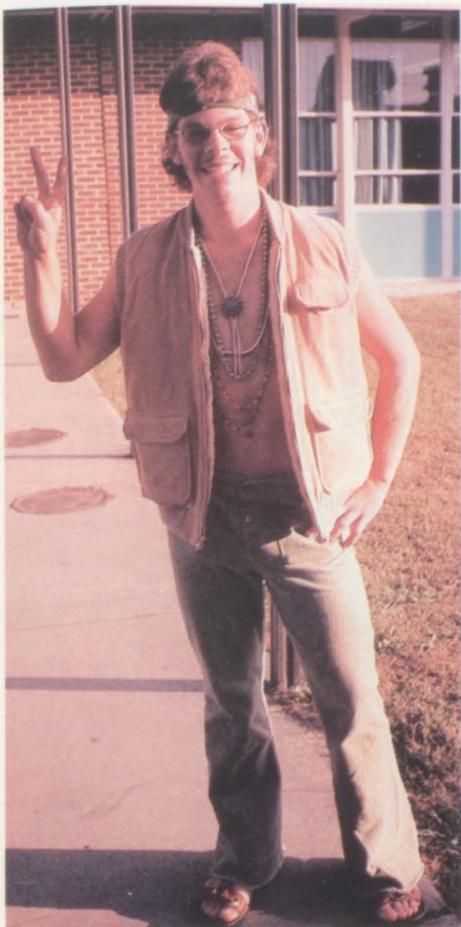

The uniqueness of Cullman can be seen everywhere. Some things that separate Cullman High from other high school are homecoming week — even with its high spirits, class competitions, and field day, the school pulls together to support its team; the spread of the campus — Cullman is blessed with beautiful flowers; the students themselves — the colorful personalities and bright students here at CHS all reflect the many hues of life.

Black and white photos seem to spring to life when colored with color pencils. Those pictures are to remind one that life is not all black and white — there are vivid colors that help to record the history of memories (which is what a yearbook does, too). It is because no two days are alike and no two people are alike that the Southerner staff wanted to dedicate this book to all of those who make Cullman High possible.

CHS!

That's right! Little did students know that as they roamed the halls between (and during) classes Cullman Senior High School was approaching three decades full of higher learning.

Way back in the late 1950's someone realized that Cullman City School (now known as Cullman Middle School) was becoming crowded. At that time grades kindergarten through twelve were combined in one school.

Plans got underway for a new Senior High School. Even though the cost was estimated to be $1,300,000, which was a lot of money at that time, architects designed a school to serve an enrollment of 900 students. The lunchroom, auditorium, and gym provided for 1800 people. Although only fourteen classrooms existed in the original plan (five English, five social studies, and four math), the spacious eighteen acres of land had enough room for at least eighteen more classrooms — maybe even twenty-nine! The football stadium, considered one of the most modern in the South, featured an enclosed lighting system to give even and shadowless illumination in all areas. The students' parking lot provided space for 400 cars.

Today, CHS has expanded to at least thirty-nine classrooms, several work shops, a guidance center, and of course the lunchroom, auditorium, and gym. Even more rooms are needed as technology advances and more equipment is acquired. Who knows? Ten years from now CHS might not even have a quad!

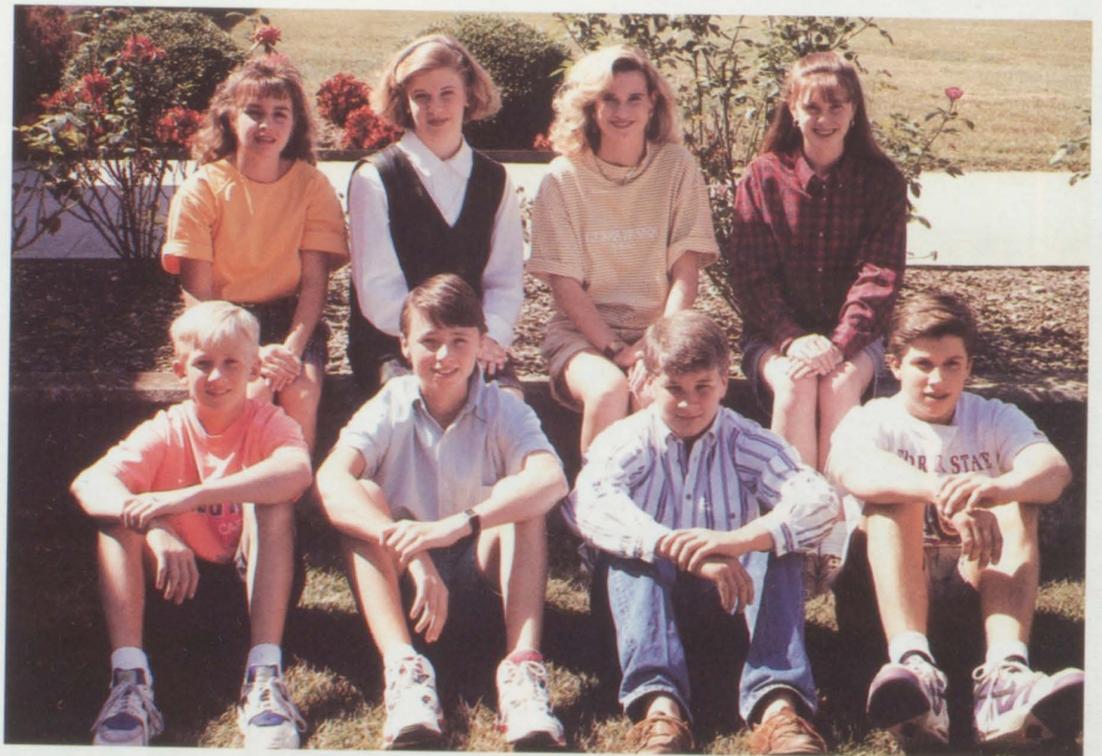

DID YOU KNOW . . .

- ★ there are 113 different courses offered at CHS?
- ★ a student is issued about 30 books during high school?
- ★ a principal's salary in 1929 was $120 a month?
- ★ the first graduating class from Cullman had six members?
- ★ the entire student body spends approximately 27,650 hours in class each week?
- ★ CHS GIRLS' basketball began in 1912?
- ★ CHS BOYS' basketball began in 1916?
- ★ school is in session 175 days a year?
- ★ school is not in session 190 days a year?
- ★ Cullman High football began in 1915?
- ★ there are approximately 806 desks in Cullman High School?
- ★ summer vacation is about eighty-four days long?

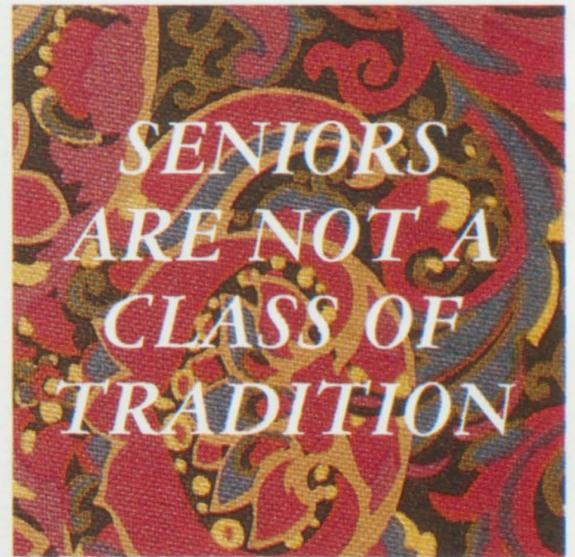

On October 11, 1991 many of the Senior class' members were asking, "What are our class colors?" The previous day the Seniors had voted on what is described by many students as "that Senior stuff". Actually, the class songs, colors, quote, flower and yell were chosen.

The outcome of this election was quite different than many of the past. Rather than choose black and another color for their class colors, the Seniors chose navy and hunter green. Also, the class selected the cactus as their class flower. What prompted such unusual choices? According to the students in the class of '92, they just wanted to be different.

Not everyone was satisfied with the results. Shannon

Quattlebaum remarked, "I thought it was tacky to choose navy and hunter green as class colors. We tried to push it too far to be different." Another comment was made by McKenna Trimble. She said, "I like it. Our class has never been one to follow traditions. After homecoming this year, I realized there is nothing our class can't do because we are individualists."

The memory of unique classes still lives on here at CHS. According to certain teachers, '92 will do the same. Rick Connell, who teaches democracy and economics, says, "The cactus is definitely unique. I think this Senior class will be remembered for a long time."

MIRROR IMAGE

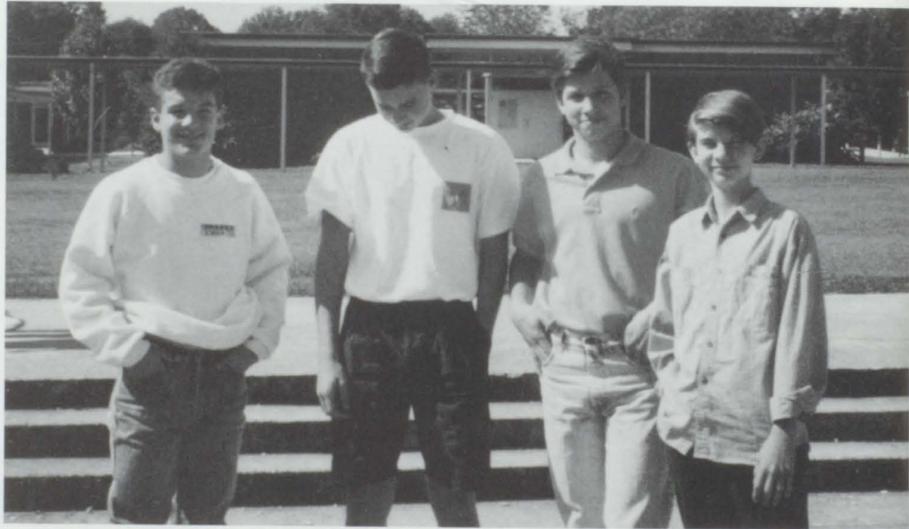

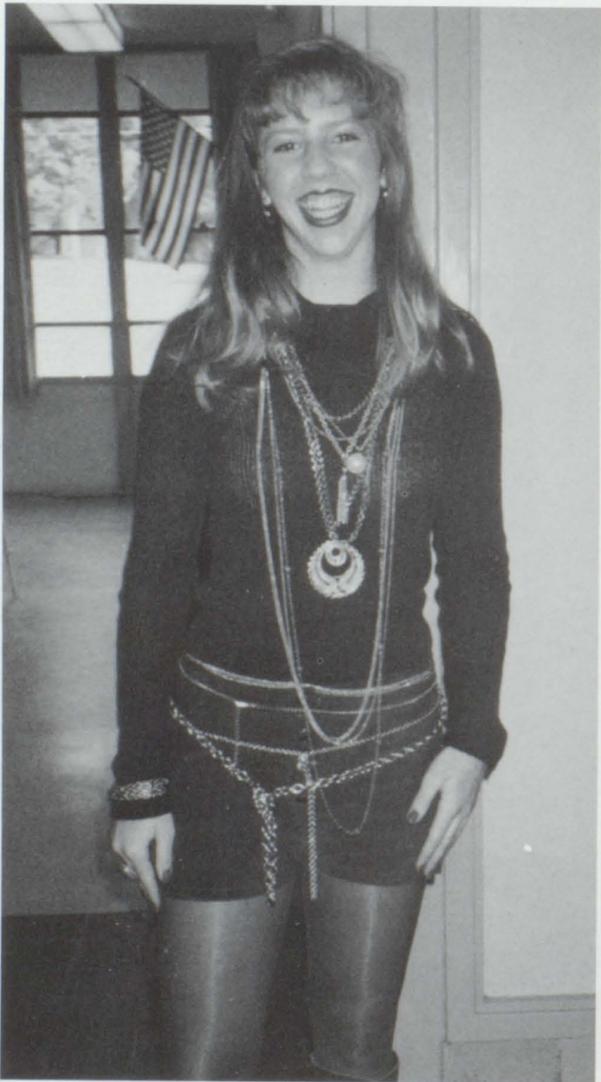

The Freshman class of 1991-92 began its high school career by making a name for itself. The question is, "What is that name?"

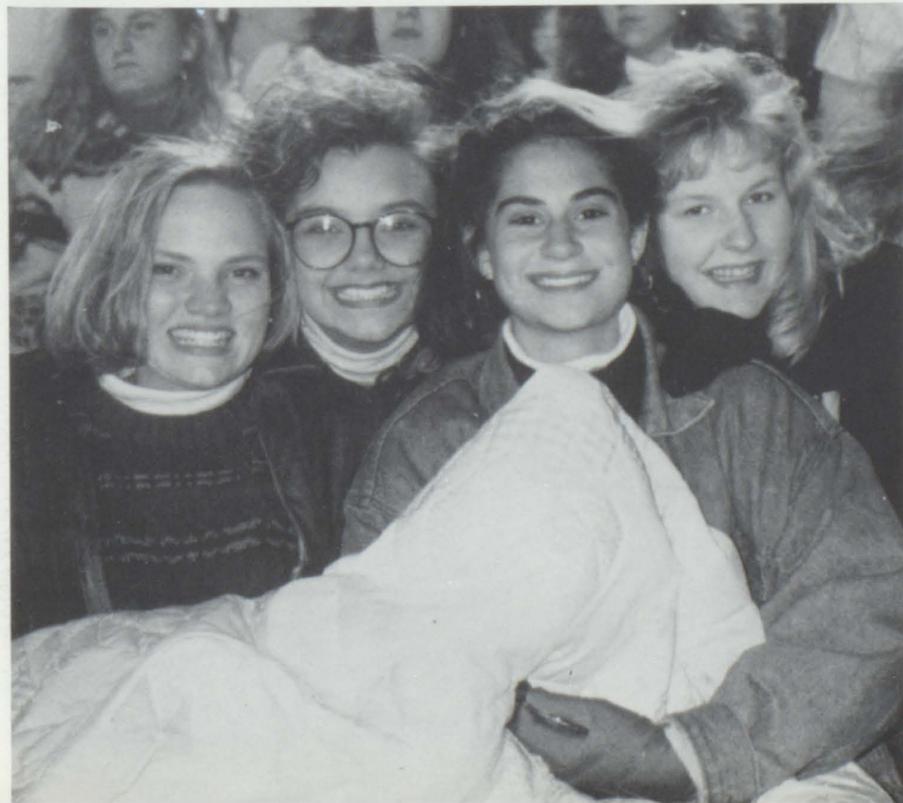

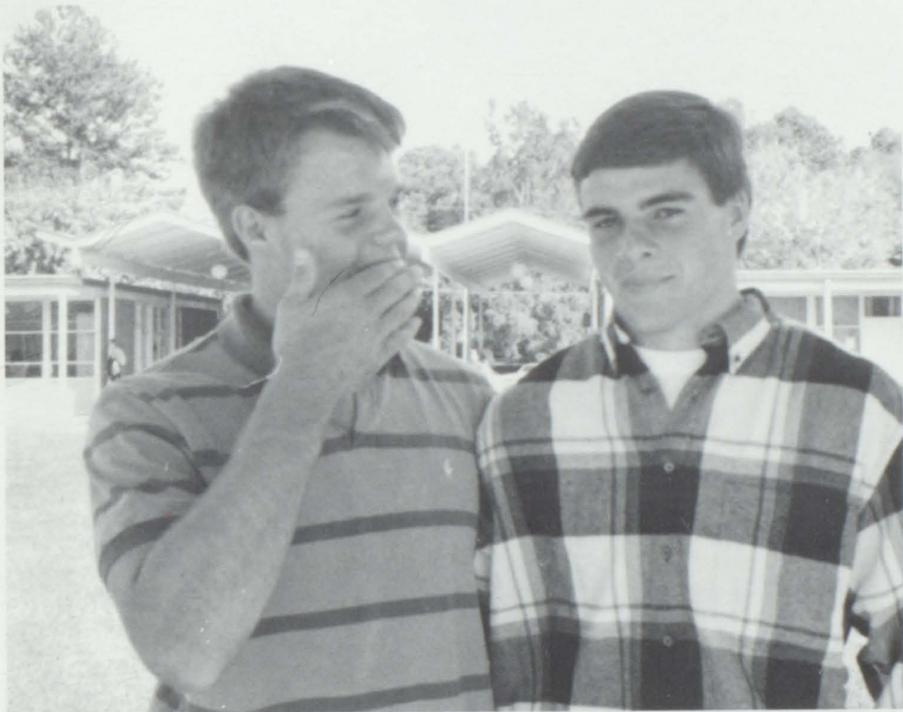

The upperclassmen here at CHS are perplexed. Senior Melanie Maddox says, "They're just like us. They have snobby attitudes and little cliques, but they're wonderful and creative." Other people do not seem to quite agree with Melanie. One of those was Wendi Veal. "They think they are not subject to tradition," she says.

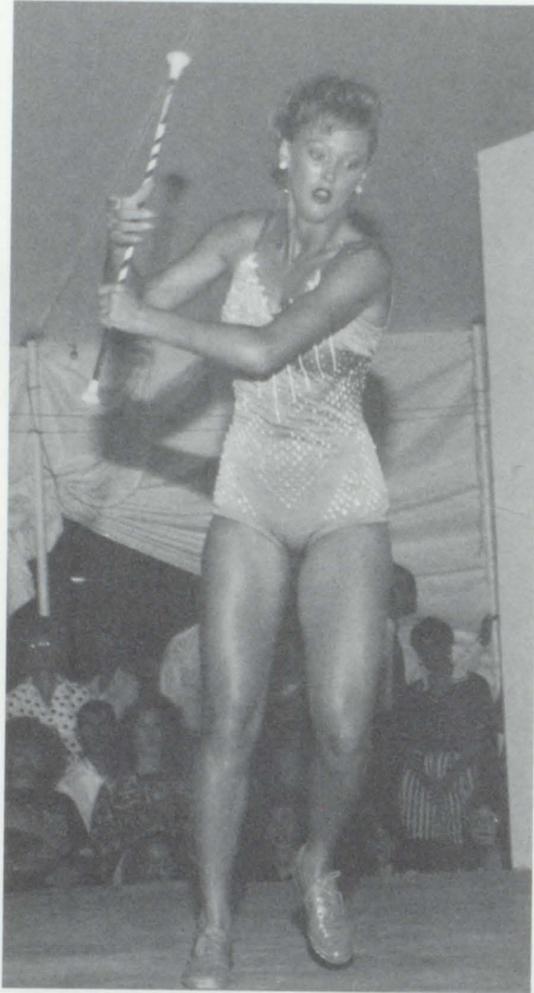

What do the teachers think about the class of '95? Mrs. Remona Hopper proclaims, "They're wonderful. The leadership in the class is outstanding." Mrs. Jennifer Callahan, who also teaches the Freshmen, says, "I find them exhilarating but exhausting."

Several Seniors and Juniors seem to remember hearing the same comments when they were Freshmen. Graduates from years past say the Freshman class is often a reflection of the Senior class. The twelfth grade has completed its task as a role model. They consider this a real compliment.

Mr. and

Jamie Burroughs has always been a favorite with CHS students and faculty. He can be depended on to add humor to any situation. His talents range from playing basketball to being "spotlight man" for the Drama department. He is also involved in Key Club, FBLA, FCA, SAVE, and the tennis team, where he plays the number one position.

She is smiling and looking towards the camera. The background features a stone archway and a stone wall with a lantern hanging on it. The text "Miss CHS" is written in the upper left corner, and "Emily Niezer" is written in the lower left corner. A text box on the right side of the image contains a paragraph about her achievements.

Miss CHS

Emily Niezer

Emily Niezer exemplifies the qualities of Miss CHS. Throughout her years at Cullman High, she has been willing and able to serve her school. She has served as class officer and Student Council officer as well as being active in FBLA and Speech and Drama.

SOUTHERNER PAGEANT

The 1992 Southerner Pageant took place on January 11. Thanks to the hard-working Southerner Staff, the pageant was a complete success. Carrying on the theme of "California Dreamin'," the Carpentry Department at CHS built the beach cabana backdrop for the stage. Each of the sixty contestants was individually presented by the emcees, Beth Michael and Molly Knight. Coco Daniel then sang "California Dreamin'" and "Don't Let the Sun Go Down on Me."

Based on an interview from earlier that afternoon and the beauty-walk that night, the selection of the Top Twenty Contestants was made. From the Top Twenty, the Top Eleven Contestants were chosen. Each of the Top Eleven answered two questions while on stage. Jon Palmer then entertained by playing the piano. From the question-answering and the beauty-walk, Miss Southerner and her Court were chosen. Amy Freeman was crowned Miss Southerner 1992. Alice Trinchitella was First Alternate; Skye Lucas was Second Alternate; Aimee Hodges was Third Alternate; Bethany Blanton was Fourth Alternate.

In talking to Amy after the pageant, she seemed very honored but even more surprised. She said the pageant "was fun and a good experience." She said, "Being on stage gives you confidence. If you can do that, you can do anything. I love Cullman High and am proud to have been chosen to be Miss Southerner."

Staff members juggle social and school lives to keep

DEADLINES AND COMMITMENTS

The yearbook has many purposes. Many people think of it only as a memory book, but it also serves as a history book, resource tool, and an advertising medium for local businesses. To accomplish all this, a staff of CHS students is chosen each spring. Upcoming juniors and seniors apply for the 12 to 17 positions on the staff which are picked by long-time sponsor, Mrs. Elaine Williams.

"I look for students who are dedicated, conscientious, creative, and able to work well with others," says Mrs. Williams. "This year 14 girls and 3 boys were picked to take on the task of creating the 1992 Southerner."

Planning begins during the first few weeks of school. The entire staff chooses a theme that represents that particular year's student body. After that, it is up to the 7 "sections" of the staff to carry the theme throughout the book. Each section plans around the theme while developing a uniqueness that separates it from the other sections. The planning is followed by sketching, writing, picture taking, designing, rewriting, and finally, handing the finished product in for Mrs. Williams' approval. Then the pages are sent to a company in Dallas for publication.

As deadlines draw close, the staffroom becomes a blur of activity as members rush to finish their assigned pages. All sorts of problems must be solved such as misplaced pictures and stressed-out staffers and advisors. If deadlines are missed, the yearbook does not return in time for graduation.

In February, the staff breathes a sigh of relief as the last deadline is met. Many people don't realize that the yearbook is finished this early in the year. After the final deadline, remaining tasks include corrections on the page proofs and the distribution of the yearbooks. Before it gets into the hands of a student, each yearbook is checked for missing and upside down pages.

Editor, Beth Michael comments on this year's book: "This year we chose a workable theme that we hoped would make the 1992 Southerner stand out from previous years. We added more articles and dedication which together tremendously improved the book." Advisor, Mrs. Williams agrees, "This year's book is the best one we've had since I've been here."

Cullman Dominates Fair Pageant . . . AGAIN!

There are many winning traditions at CHS and the Cullman County Fair Pageant is no exception. Cullman representatives have captured the Fair Queen title for the past three consecutive years. This has been accomplished by talented ladies like Christy Munger, Belinda Kusz, and this year's winner, Candy Byrd.

In September, Candy competed against girls from all over Cullman County. Their talents ranged from modern dance to vocal performance. Candy, of course, twirled her trademark batons. Her dazzling performance and exceptional interview scores helped her attain a long-time goal. "I've wanted to win the Fair Pageant since I was this tall," said Candy, holding her hand just below her knee. "It was a thrill to achieve this goal."

With all the talent in the Senior class at CHS, choosing a representative proved to be a difficult and competitive process. In April of last year, the Cullman pageant was held to determine who would go on to the Fair. Twelve girls competed in the areas of interview, talent, beauty, and composure. Each girl presented herself well, and Cullman would have been proud to send any of them.

National Merit Scholars

National Merit Scholars' selections are based on scores from the PSAT/NMSQT taken in the fall of the junior year. Fifteen thousand semi-finalists are announced in the fall of their senior year. These people scored in the top one-half percent of their state. Semi-finalists have an opportunity to advance to the next level in the competition for some 6,100 Merit Scholarships, worth approximately $26 million. A list of Semifinalists and Commended Students (those who scored in the top five percent in their state) is sent to all colleges and universities in the nation.

Girls' & Boys' State

Girls' and Boys' State participants are selected by a teacher committee each spring. Interested juniors submit a short essay explaining why they would like to participate. The committee then picks two or three boys (depending on class enrollment) and one girl. The boys attend a week-long session at Samford University where they are involved in several political exercises. The girl attends a similar session at Huntingdon College in Montgomery.

HOBY Award Winner Julie Brand

HOBY is an acronym for Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation. To be selected as this year's HOBY ambassador, five sophomores submitted an application and an essay to the principal. The applications were then viewed by a committee of community members and members of the guidance staff from CHS. Julie Brand was chosen to attend the Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership Seminar this coming spring in Huntsville. HOBY ambassadors from all over the state will go to the Space and Rocket Center and participate in classes and discussions concerning current events and leadership qualities.

DAR Good Citizen Lanie Peinhardt

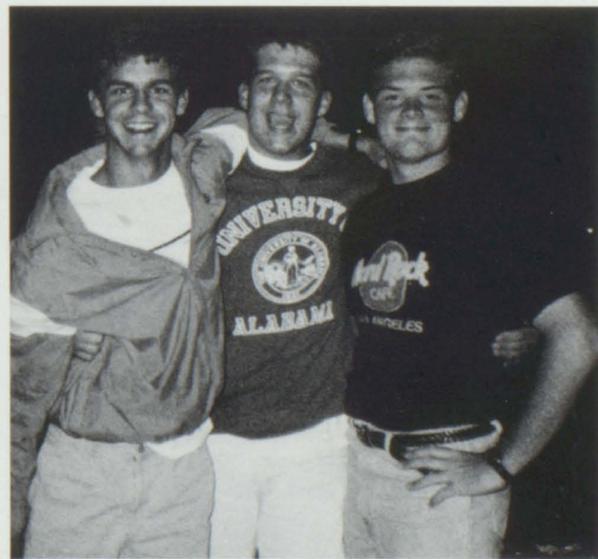

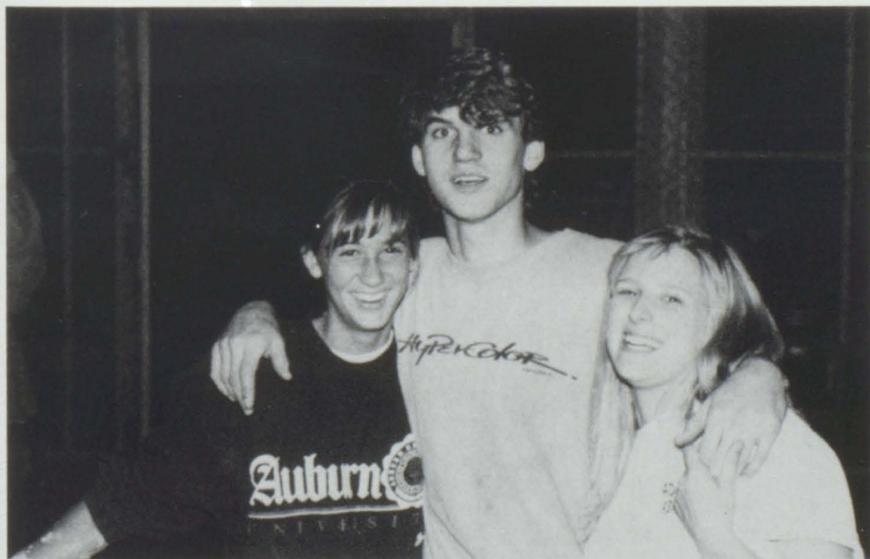

Lanie Peinhardt was nominated and voted by the faculty here at CHS to be DAR Good Citizen of the Year. She then submitted an application and an essay to compete with the other DAR Good Citizens of the county to advance to the state competition. Lanie represented Cullman High well by placing second in Cullman County.

As many juniors soon found out, their third year of high school was to consist of many challenges. After an exciting summer of car washes and poster parties, most came back to reality with the first homework assignment. Testing was soon to become a major concern of most juniors, beginning with the exit exam. Finding time to do all of the many activities also became a problem. Responsibilities were added, while we were getting our first taste of being upperclassmen. Homecoming was our first chance to pull together and show our class spirit. Semester exams before Christmas, as well as more college entrance exams, added to the pressure of being a junior. Mrs. Sandlin kept class morale high during her last semester as junior class sponsor. As the year closed, the juniors realized that their senior year of high school and college were the next challenges on the list.

The Sophomores finally advanced up the totem pole, no longer to be on the bottom rung. Many began the year finding out what hardships they would suffer with homework, driver's education, the PACT, and licenses. Pep rallies were also a challenge for the Sophomores, but they finally pulled it off and won the last regular season rally. One aspect this year's tenth graders will miss is Mrs. Betty Jo Tiffin's teaching World History. Other challenges still remain, such as Advanced English and Driver's Education. As well as driving simulators and filmstrips, the students gain behind-the-wheel experiences. Most will also find out the responsibilities of driving on their own when they earn their licenses. Throughout all of the fun, hard work, privileges, and responsibilities, the Sophomores managed to hang on with the knowledge that next year they will finally be upperclassmen.

The freshman class of 1995 has proven itself to be unique in more ways than one. Changing the time of class elections from the end of their eighth grade year to the beginning of their ninth was an advantage to the leadership of the class, therefore, aiding them in changing everyone's view of freshmen. Another unusual accomplishment was achieved when the freshmen won second place in the Homecoming competition. This was a great shock to the student body and teachers. To add to this change of pace, the freshman hall decorations remained untouched due to the efforts of Mrs. Callahan and ninth grade students. With such a large class size the freshmen were able to win the spirit stick twice before homecoming. Not only will this class be remembered for its size but also for its enthusiasm, leadership, and its ability to work well together.

into Bearcat territory before their drive stalled, but, Dale Posey nailed an 18-yard field goal with 3:32 left in the fourth quarter to give the Eagles a 24-14 lead.

Cullman came storming back and narrowed the margin on a spectacular play between Grobe and Gudger and Lamar. The Bearcats pulled off the hook-and-lateral play, as Grobe passed to Gudger, who then lateraled the ball to Lamar, who then raced into the endzone to complete a 62-yard scoring play.

Cullman went for two with Grobe passing to Lamar for the conversion, narrowing the Trojan lead to 10-8 with 8:30 left to play.

A tough Bearcat defense, which held Muscle Shoals to only 13 yards passing and 11 yards on the ground in the second half, held the Trojans following the kickoff and forced a punt which Cullman got at the Muscle Shoals 45 with 6:54 left.

COACHING STAFF

The Bearcats had an outstanding season accomplishing many goals. One of the big reasons for Cullman's success had to be the outstanding offense. They displayed this with their opening game to West Point defeating the Warriors. The following two weeks the Cullman team fought hard but could not overcome the Erwin Eagles and the Muscle Shoals Trojans. They bounced back with a victory on the road to Gunter'sville. The Cats then ran over Hanceville with the enthusiasm to get back their winning streak. They knew they would have to work hard throughout the season.

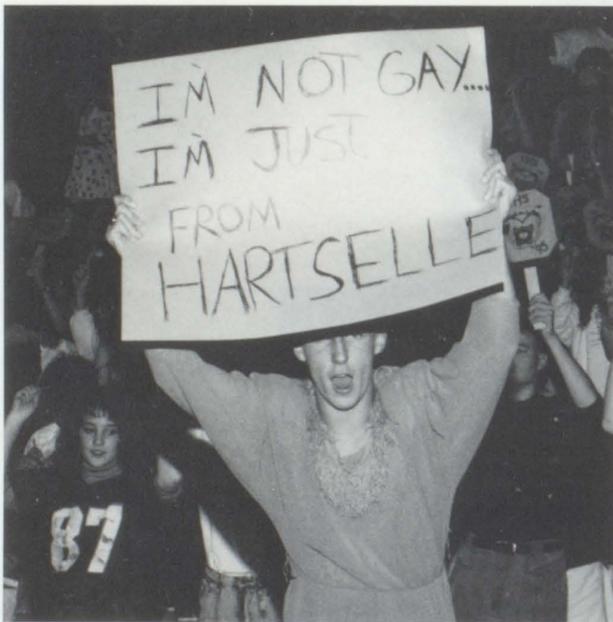

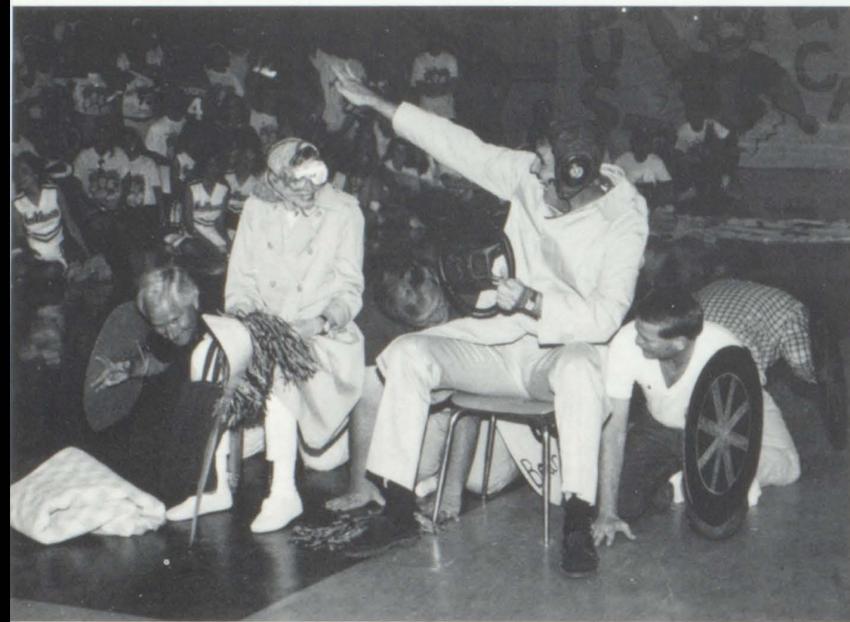

Cullman played Brewer next and took advantage of the game the first half. Chris Self was out of the game from an injury, and J. J. Walker was the kicker. Cullman then defeated Brewer. The Cats' biggest game of the season was Hartselle. The guys were pumped up for this one. They came together as a team and beat the Hartselle Tigers. The following three weeks, three more victories were captured. The Cats defeated Good Hope, Arab, and Boaz.

"CHS is number one and don't you forget it!" As shakers were moving in unison, energetic students cheered for their team at the annual homecoming pep rally. Cheerleaders built pyramids, and individual classes designed their own cheers. Finally, before heading out to the stadium for Field Day, the student body united as one to show their football team that Cullman High supported them.

The homecoming pep rally and Field Day, events occurring on homecoming day including the sack race, the wheelbarrow race, and the big wheel race to name a few, are just two rituals of homecoming week every year. For four days classes scramble to gather last minute ideas for building decorations and the goal post banner before putting them on display Thursday night before the big game. Friends laugh at each other's psychedelic outfits worn on '60's Day. Seniors sing the Alma Mater around their last homecoming bonfire. Is this what it is all about?

Originally, homecoming week was designed to unify the student body and provide one week of fun activities to include all students in an athletic game — whether playing or not. Cullman High has exemplified this definition over and over by the spirit that overtakes each person a little differently every year. Also, the school's team feels more support than any other time of the year. Sometimes it is this little extra nudge that leads the group on to victory.

Although homecoming arrives every year, it is never the same. Different events and changed persons make it exciting during each new autumn. For example, with each passing Senior class, a new Freshman class arrives. Also, Field Day does not always contain the three legged race.

In order to make homecoming possible, it takes the efforts of everyone involved. Faculty, staff, student council, and the entire student body provide all that is necessary for a successful homecoming week — pride. Without pride in one's school, homecoming would never have been invented. As Mr. Leon Bently would say, "Bearcat pride is hard to hide!"

The 1991 Varsity Cheerleaders gave the Bearcats excellent support in their bid for the area crown. These sixteen girls practiced two and a half hours for three days a week to make sure CHS was well represented. In competition they placed fifth in state competition at Jacksonville State University and fourth at the Regional Cheerleading Competition in Birmingham, allowing them to compete in the National Cheerleading Championship in Orlando, Florida, January 31-February 4. With six outstanding seniors and the leadership of their sponsor Mrs. Donna Sisulak, they raised money for these trips and also held a cookout for the football team, therefore bringing recognition to CHS and the football players.

GIRLS' VARSITY

The Varsity 'Cats, coached by Don Watts, had a disappointing season this year, not winning an area game. Led by seniors Kevin Arnold and Joe Mobley, the 'Cats struggled for their nine victories. The key was aggressive defense. Junior A. J. Lamar played point guard and was assisted by guards Brent Patterson and Michael Hutchens.

Coach Ray Heitmueller's Varsity Lady 'Cats got off to a great start this year. Led by seniors Lori Gullion, Vicki Mayo, and Karen Heaton, the Lady Cats went 8-0 in the first half of the season and were ranked fourth in the state. After Christmas holidays, the Lady Cats struggled, losing three out of the next four games. The Lady Cats got back on track winning seven of the next nine games to finish their season with a record of fifteen wins and five losses.

The Junior Varsity, coached by assistant Mitch Morris, consists of two juniors and twelve sophomores. The J.V. had a tough season winning 6 out of 20 games. Jonathan Romine led the show as point guard. Daniel Cabri and Benton Hudson took on the guard position while Patrick Ray and Ross Tekulve played forwards.

The 1991-1992 Basketball Cheerleading Squad consisted of ten girls who practiced every weekday from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. At Jacksonville State University, they competed with other squads, placing second in dance and first in cheer. At the games the girls led cheers; on occasion, the spectators began their own cheers and the squad joined in.

The basketball team enjoys the cheerleaders' being their "secret pals," giving each player candy or doughnuts during the season. When asked about her experiences, Joy Gudger said, "It was a fun experience." Karen Lyrene added, "It gives you a chance to meet new people."

The senior players have realized that this is the last time they will be playing a sport with their close friends of high school. A person sometimes takes for granted the activities during one's high school athletic career until it is over. One can look back and think of the accomplishments he made or contributed to the team. Former athletes can only hope to carry on the tradition by encouraging the younger generations after them.

VOLLEYBALL

The Lady Cats had an outstanding season. During the season play, their record was 20-6. Led by six senior starters, the Cats battled it out with the Arab Knights to claim the area championship title. The Lady Cats moved on to sub state play facing the Fayette Tigers. Sparked by accurate setting by McKenna Trimble and Leann Campbell, the Cats defeated Fayette in 3 straight sets. They then had to face the Bradshaw Bruins. The Cats were stomped the first two sets only to fight back with expert serving and hitting by Vicki Mayo and Karen Heaton to win the next two. The last set was paced with the returning and digging made by Carla Knight and Sheri Cook, but the Cats' efforts were not good enough to overcome the opposition. The Cats were defeated by Bradshaw to end the volleyball season.

With a disappointing season in 1991, the CHS Soccer Team looked to improve in 1992. In 1992 the team played a tough schedule against Coffee, Bradshaw, Tuscaloosa Central, and Decatur. They were led by a new coach who was determined to give them a winning season. To build toward a winning season, Coach Howard Denton began practice after Christmas vacation for a season that began late February and ended early May.

Although it has been said that "it's quality that counts not quantity," the Cullman cross country team was equipped with both this year. Some sacrifices were made like getting up a little earlier for practice or running in the excessive heat, but it paid off in the long run. Cullman girls finished second in state. The young team (two freshmen, four sophomores, and one junior) has accomplished a lot. They won three major invitations and came very close to repeating as state champs after losing two of their top five runners from last year. The boys team had a respectful finish considering they were so young with three freshmen, six sophomores, and only two seniors. They finished fourth in the state cross country meet.

BOYS' TRACK

The Boys' CHS Track Team (composed of mainly freshmen, juniors, and one senior, Travis Payton) looked stronger in 1992. Finishing in the top ten of the state tournament in '91, they looked for a top five finish in '92. Headed by Garlan Gudger, Michael Hutchens, Jay Holloway, and Lee Powell, their strength was middle distance events. With Frank Brown pole vaulting and Brandon Gardner high jumping, they were sure to dominate the state tournament.

This past season was not an easy one for the Girls' Track Team with tough competition coming from both Fort Payne and Decatur. The girls, led by three high scorers, Amanda Patrick, Leah Johnson, and Hilary Stiefelmeyer, looked to an exciting season in 1992. The Girls' Team finished fourth in the state tournament in 1991 and expected a return to the top five in 1992. The girls were a strong force in the short distance events with senior McKenna Trimble who finished third in the 100 meter hurdles at the state tournament in '91.

The 1992 Baseball team opened its season with the annual 50 inning game held on March 14. The regular season games began on March 16 at Bob Jones. The Varsity team consists of five seniors and eight juniors. The pitching was sparked by seniors Byron Nixon and Chris Self. The seniors have been in the playoffs two out of three seasons and plan on returning to the playoffs this season. The Varsity team is coached by Mark Britton, and the Junior Varsity is coached by second year assistant Jason Wright.

The 1992 Lady 'Cats Softball team opened its season on March 17. Coach Bobby Noles and assistant Gary Noles entered their second year to coach with a team consisting of seven seniors, six juniors, and two sophomores. By selling raffle tickets, the girls raised money for tournament expenses and new uniforms. For the first time, this year there was a Junior Varsity team consisting of freshmen and sophomores. Having lost only one senior, the Lady Cats are expected to finish with an outstanding season led by the pitching of Sheri Cook, Teri Lee, and Becky Butler. The girls plan on returning to Montgomery to reclaim their last year's title — State Champs!

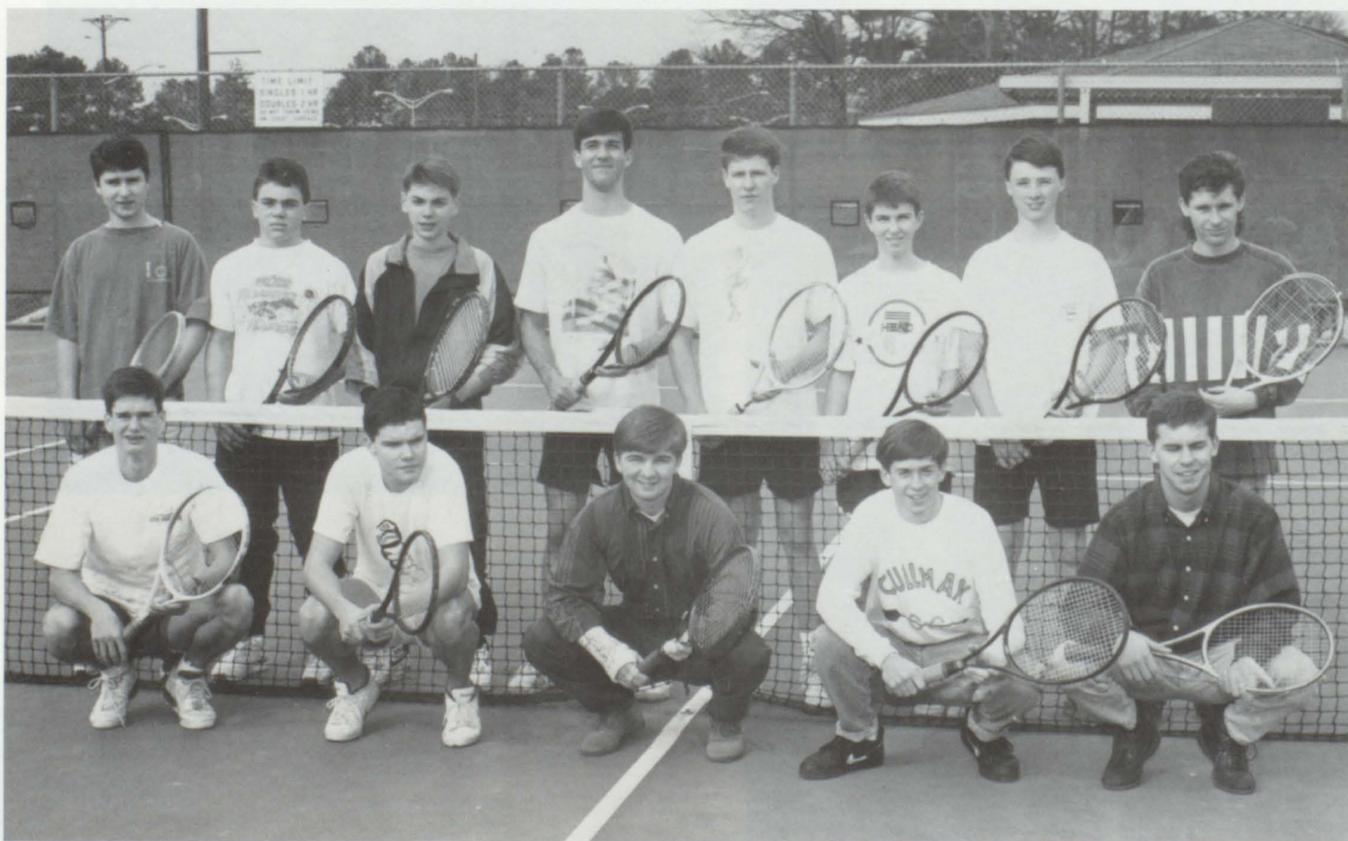

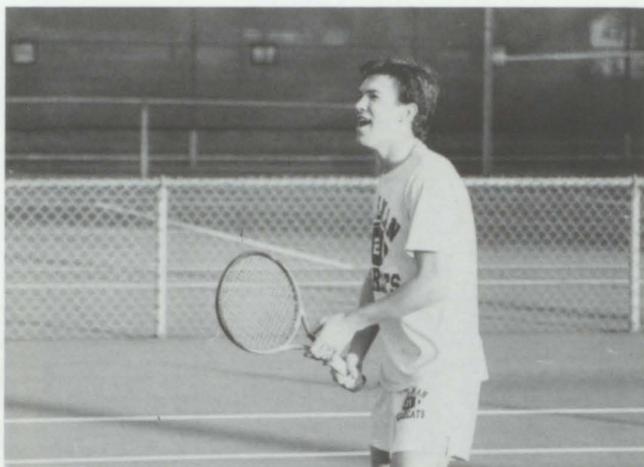

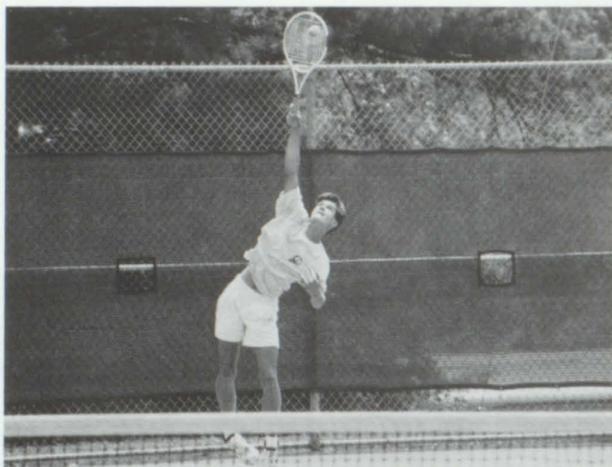

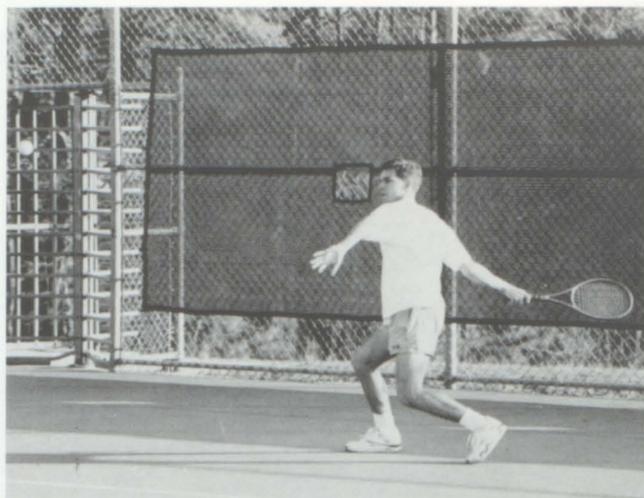

BASEBALL

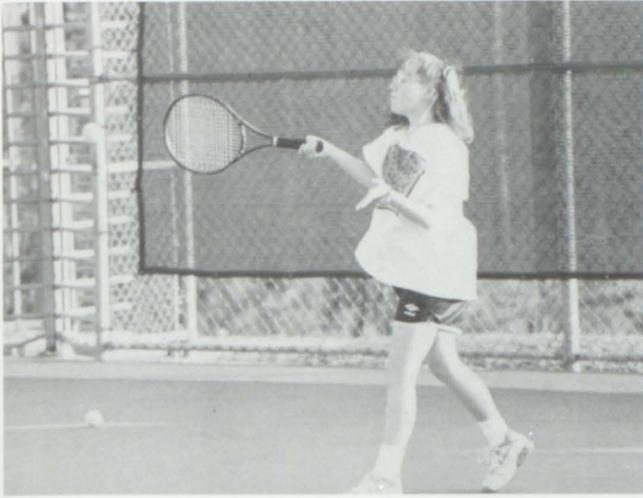

BOYS' TENNIS

The 1992 Boys' CHS Tennis Team was a strong force in area thirteen play. Four of the top six players returned to improve the Cats' 1991 standings. Last years' team defeated Guntersville to become sectional champs and later went on to finish fifth in state competition. Although the Cats faced one of the toughest schedules in recent years with twelve matches, they carried on the winning tradition of CHS tennis.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The CHS Girls' Tennis Team was a team to be reckoned with in 1992 with their goal set at a state championship. Last year the girls finished first in their section and third in state competition. Tonia Schnelle, who was state champion in her division last year, returned to defend her title. Clancy Johnson, Clancey Murphy, Noel Bergquist, and Jill Bishop also returned to aid the girls in their battle for a state title.

The 1992 Gymnastics team, coached by Donna Sisulak, consists of seven girls: three seniors, two sophomores, and two freshmen. Senior McKenna Trimble is the current State Champion on the Balance Beam. Beginning in September, the team practiced two days a week. The season opened in January and continued for ten weeks. The state meet is always held the first Friday in March.

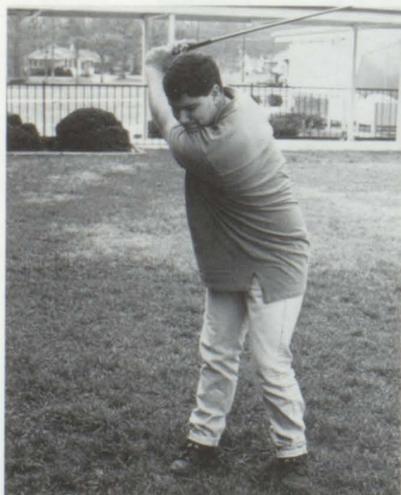

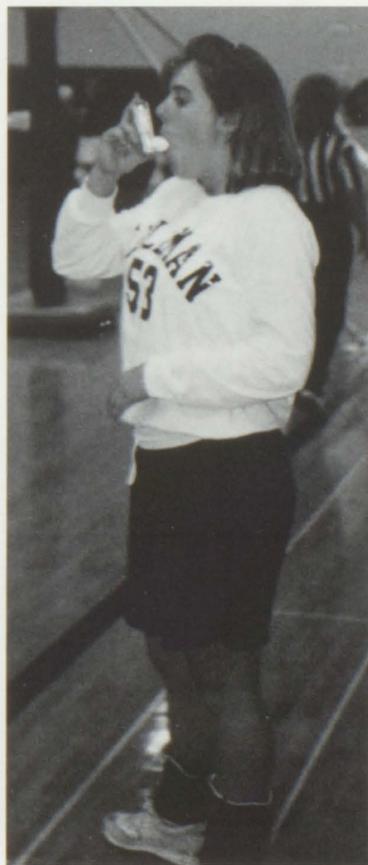

GOLF

With eighteen boys trying out and all of the starters returning, the CHS Golf Team proved tough to beat in '92. In '91 the team went to Gulf Shores to the state tournament where they beat Hartselle and nailed down twelfth place. The state tournament does not group schools by areas; therefore, the golf team competed against Area Six schools. In '92 the team also had seven girls expressing interest in forming a girls' team, and for the first time in CHS history, Coach Green attempted to build a girls' golf program. With the program as strong as it had been in several years, the boys' team appeared destined for a top ranking at the state tournament.

Student Council, the voice of the students of Cullman High School, is composed of four officers and eight representatives from each class. Student Council is an organization which communicates between the authorities who run the school, and the students who are the reason the school is here.

The responsibilities of Student Council are numerous and weigh heavily upon all members, not just officers. Despite the fact that parking spaces are sold to individuals by Student Council, some refuse to obey basic rules of society and park wherever they choose.

Before we know it, homecoming is here! Most students think homecoming happens by itself; but how many students know that Student Council along with Ms. Allred and Mr. Bentley work to organize homecoming six weeks prior to the events? (Although the class of '95 appeared to be confused, bewildered and lost in all of the hustle and bustle of homecoming, they succeeded in beating the class of '93; but sorry freshmen, you didn't have a chance against the seniors.) For the third time the annual homecoming dance was held outdoors.

Student Council celebrates Christmas each year by having a Christmas party held at Ms. Allred's house. Student Council also elected to give each custodian a much-deserved present, as a token of our thanks and appreciation for their hard work and dedication to Cullman High School. Each spring the Student Council sponsors a blood drive. Later in April, elections begin for officers. In addition to the four usual officers, a Chaplain and a County Representative are elected by members of the Student Council. This year's Chaplain is Zana Free and the County Representative is Emily Niezer. Student Council is the heartbeat of the student body. Without the students, there is no purpose for the council.

Band began its season before school started with band camp. For new members, most would have chosen to be in school than go through this event. During the first week, the members came from eight to twelve, Monday through Friday to learn the music to be played during the half-time festivities. Next came the "most rigorous week of their lives" when they came from eight to five, Monday through Thursday. New members, freshmen, came at 7:30, wearing dunce caps, huge name tags, no make-up, wet hair, unshaven legs (girls, of course). At this time they were required to do calisthenics and run. If they did not cooperate, they paid the penalty Thursday night at "formal" initiation. On Thursday night the new members came prepared with conditioner in their hair, old clothes on their bodies and tucked-in shirts. Once they arrived, members required them to march across the parking lot behind the baseball field with their eyes shut and their mouths open chanting DOOM! DOOM! While they marched, senior band members cracked eggs on their heads. After they arrived at the stadium, they stepped up four at a time to get a questionable liquid poured over them. In accordance to how good they had been during the week, they were required to march time, sit, or stand in a bath tub full of a liquid in question. After completing this phase, they stood on plastic while all the leftovers were thrown on them. However, this is not all there is to band.

The Cullman High School Band performed at every game, including play-offs, during the halftime festivities and during the game. A new addition to the band was freshman flag corps members. To be prepared for their performances, they practiced every day during third period and Thursday night for 2 hours. This year they had two openers, one designed specifically for special occasions. During the week of September 14th, they marched in the Fair Parade and Marching Exhibition, where all county schools came to present their talents and the University of North Alabama Band was a special guest. Two competitions took place this year. At the Mid-South Competition in Gadsden they received all superiors and won the Bob Rush Memorial Award for receiving all ones. They also competed in Hoover and obtained all ones, with the majorettes and flags winning best in class. Our drum corps and our majorettes won best in the state at Clanton.

After a magnificent performance at the Annual Christmas Concert, the band turned to serious study of music for concert season, with many students participating in honor bands at All-County, Troy State, Birmingham Southern, The University of Alabama, and Auburn. Those students who have a lot of patience and self discipline try out for All-State, where the music is very difficult and tedious. Sometimes we take the band for granted, but what would pep rallies, football games, etc. be like without them?

Jazz Band

The Cullman High School Jazz Band in its second consecutive year has added pizzazz to half time at basketball games. Their performances not only excited students at pep rallies but also impressed them with a jazzy school performance. To encourage elementary students' interest in music, the jazz band gave outstanding performances at both East and West Elementary. Jazz festivals were a major part of the spring activities along with their annual spring concert.

Third Row: Joe Latham, Rick Williams, Melanie Maddox, Ken Hamilton, Nicky Goeller, Julie Brand, Craig Holmes, Reed Thornton, Brent Irvin.

German Band

An interesting experience for the Cullman High School German Band was performing for Tony Allbright's grandparents' fiftieth wedding anniversary. "Everybody must have thought we were pretty great because as soon as we began to play, they shoved the tables out of the way and started dancing," said Melanie Maddox. The German Band also performed for the annual Oktoberfest opening and festivities. To prepare for their performances, the band practiced once a week for about a month. Ms. Linda Townsend, the German Band director, led the band to new and exciting places this year.

Students Advocating Vital Environmentalism or S.A.V.E. in its second active year at Cullman High School has grown to a size of approximately fifty members. S.A.V.E.'s purpose is to reach many environmental goals as well as solving the problems our earth faces. Regular activities included Adopt-A-Mile and public environmental awareness. On Earth Day this spring, students cleaned up the campus, sold T-shirts, and planted trees. This year's officers and representatives were Nichole Hamilton, president; Katrina Kilgo, Vice President; Sara Fowler, Secretary; Kerriann Sparks, Treasurer; Nancy Oaks, Reporter; Juli Leonard, Freshman Representative; Amber Howard, Sophomore Representative; Emily Clark, Junior Representative; Jamie Burroughs, Senior Representative. Future Business Leaders of America

Future Business Leaders of America is a club that promotes business in the high school. To be a member of FBLA one must be enrolled in a business course. In February the club attended state and district competitions, in which they competed in everything from word processing to public speaking. Last summer a few members attended nationals in Anaheim, California. The members were involved, this year, in the AT&T investment challenge, in which AT&T gave them a chance to invest in the stock market. As a fund raiser, they sponsored a womanless beauty pageant in February. Their sponsors are Mrs. Watts and Mrs. McPhillips.

Leadership Experience

The LEO Club is involved in many activities with the 120 members participating in meals-on-wheels that provides food for elderly citizens; Christmas Love, which gives toys to needy children at Christmas; and the Lions Club concession stand, which is operated at the fair. Our LEO Club received the state award in November for the best LEO Club in Alabama. The LEO Club is also being nominated for the national award, a recognition which will appear in the Lions Club magazine.

Key Club is a service organization that benefits Cullman High School and the community. Members at Cullman High School are responsible for changing the marquee in front of the school, staffing the flag-raising ceremonies prior to football games, and cleaning the football stadium after sporting events. These members have fund raisers for the Boys' Ranch, and at Cullman High School this is a turkey and ham sale at Thanksgiving. The club is represented weekly at local Kiwanis meetings. This spring they attended the annual spring convention in Mobile.

To become a member of Key Club, one must first complete an application. Candidates are then introduced to a caucus, and a vote is taken for confirmation. Favorites are then nominated and voted on by a caucus. Eight female favorites are chosen (two from each grade) and one senior sweetheart. The favorites are in charge of the annual sweetheart ball. Favorites also participate in all other Key Club activities.

Youth For Christ

Youth for Christ is an organization which helps teens enhance their spiritual lives. They had a very active year beginning with their first "get-together." This was basically an ice-breaker where new members and freshmen felt welcome.

The "Rock-a-thon" was the next major event where members rocked in a rocking chair in order to raise money to sponsor children for Christmas. The Second Annual Student Fellowship Breakfast was a success again this year.

Youth for Christ worked for many worthy projects and causes this year. Their busy club schedule ended with the End-of-the-Year banquet saying good-bye to the senior members.

The French Club is a club that specializes in learning about the French language and the country itself. Every year the club is very active during the school year, but this year was an exception. The club did not do very much because they are planning to go to Europe and visit the countries there this summer. The French club's advisor is Mrs. Throneberry.

HILIGHT

Due to proration cutbacks and the unavailability of a sponsor, HILIGHT was going to be disbanded. Ms. Allred, however, was generous enough to dedicate her time and energy to the HILIGHT, since Mrs. Knight retired as HILIGHT sponsor at the end of the 1991 school year. Proration took its toll on HILIGHT. Only two papers were published — a Christmas edition and a senior edition.

Featured regularly in the HILIGHT are sports, student activities, student clubs, editorials, and the various lifestyles of Cullman High School's unique student body. HILIGHT sponsored a fund raiser in October raffling Chicago bulls tickets.

Through good news and bad news, HILIGHT has been true to Cullman High School through the years and, with the support of the students, will continue.

Drama Club

The Drama Club is open to anyone who wants to broaden his/her theatrical skills. The members can assist in stage crew or serve as ushers in the plays. They also can travel with the speech and drama class to district and state competitions. Drama has performed plays for the student body, and they have performed the play "Snow White" for West Elementary and a Christmas play for all the elementary schools in the city. On January 30th the Drama Club brought We're Broadway Bound, a musical review of Broadway vocals, to Cullman High School. The Drama Class presented its annual spring production in mid-March and Tasters Choice in May. Anyone interested in the Drama Club should see Mrs. Hopper or Mrs. Callahan.

Model Senate

Model Senate

After being selected through an essay contest, the Model Senate participants spent four days at Birmingham-Southern College. They went to committee meetings and party caucuses, lobbied for legislation, and engaged in debate on a mock-Senate floor. Besides being a good way to get a closer look at government, Model Senate offers the Senators four scholarships each year as well as numerous awards.

Close-Up Club

Close-Up Club

During the week of December 1, three senior girls from Cullman High School and Mr. Hauk, their sponsor, attended Close-Up in Washington, D.C. There they met with students from California, Nevada, Texas, and Utah. The first day they visited Williamsburg, Virginia. Touring colonial villages, they saw first hand how people lived during the horse and buggy days. They also met one of the last seven men who print books by hand. They visited the beautiful campus of William and Mary to end their day in Williamsburg. After this they went to Washington, D.C., where they spent most of their time on Capitol Hill. Congress was not in session at this time, but they were given a tour. Tom Bevill's office was also a highlight of the week, for they got to sit in his office and meet his secretary. Friday was their "free" day. Therefore, they decided to visit the National Archives and the Library of Congress and shop. When asked if she would encourage others to go, Amy McAfee said, "Definitely. Yes, I would encourage them to go!" All in all she had a wonderful time, but she admitted a week's worth of school work can be difficult to make up. To be involved in this club, all one has to do is sign up and pay all expenses.

Amy McAfee, Heather Whitt, and Clancey Murphy.

Future Homemakers of America

Future Homemakers of America, consisting of students who are taking or have taken Home Economic courses, meets once a month with planned activities. Their first two meetings consisted of a fashion show and a program on self defense. As a fund raiser, the club sold beautiful corsages during homecoming week. During Thanksgiving week, members were asked to bring canned goods, which were given to a needy family. Their Christmas Party included entertainment by Coco Daniels, Tammi Galin, and Shannon Quattlebaum, as well as a baking contest with the winners, Kristi Brooks and Shannon Quattlebaum, receiving gift certificates to Belk's. FHA week occurred during February and the meeting that month featured manicures by B. J. Hicks. Also the county-wide Beef Cook-off occurred this week. Valentines were taken to the nursing home as part of FHA week. At their next meeting, First Avenue Bridals and Formals conducted a fashion show. A banquet was given at the end of the year.

FFA

The Cullman High School FFA chapter consists of students enrolled in Agribusiness Education classes. The purpose of the club is for students planning careers in agribusiness to develop skills in leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. To develop these skills students participate in team and individual contests related to the instructional program in agribusiness. Last year our chapter of FFA won many awards: National Silver Emblem Award in Chapter Safety, First Place County — Forestry Judging Team, Third Place State — Nursery and Landscaping Team, Fourth Place District — Public Speaking Contest (Stephen Thomas), and Fifth Place State — Chapter Safety Award. The officers this year were Stephen Thomas (President), Byron Nixon (Vice President), Karen Reed (Secretary), Michelle Corrick (Treasurer), Ralph Nail (Reporter), and Tony Allbright (Sentinel).

Drafting

VICA Drafting is a club available to drafting students. The best drafters in the club attended regional, state, and national competitions. During Christmas they sponsored two girls for Hospice and sold Valentine's baskets for Valentine's Day. "It's like a job," said draftsman Jeremy Jester. The club's advisor is Mr. Bobo.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America

Cabinet Making

Cabinet Making is available to anyone who is interested. The members of cabinet making are involved in many activities around the campus. This year they helped with an addition to the dugouts at the baseball field and filled the large holes in the parking lot. They also built the props for the Southerner pageant. Although the class is not highly recognized, they are quite beneficial to the beauty of our campus. Mr. Hays is the advisor of the class.

Distributive Education Clubs of America

Distributive Education Clubs of America, or D.E.C.A., has twenty-two members this year. Mr. Kusz is the club sponsor and the Marketing Education teacher. This year's club officers are Jamie Buxton, President; Angie Stewart, Vice President;

Stephanie Bryson, Secretary; Eric Jones, Treasurer; Alicia Jennings, Chaplain; Kelly Comer, Reporter.

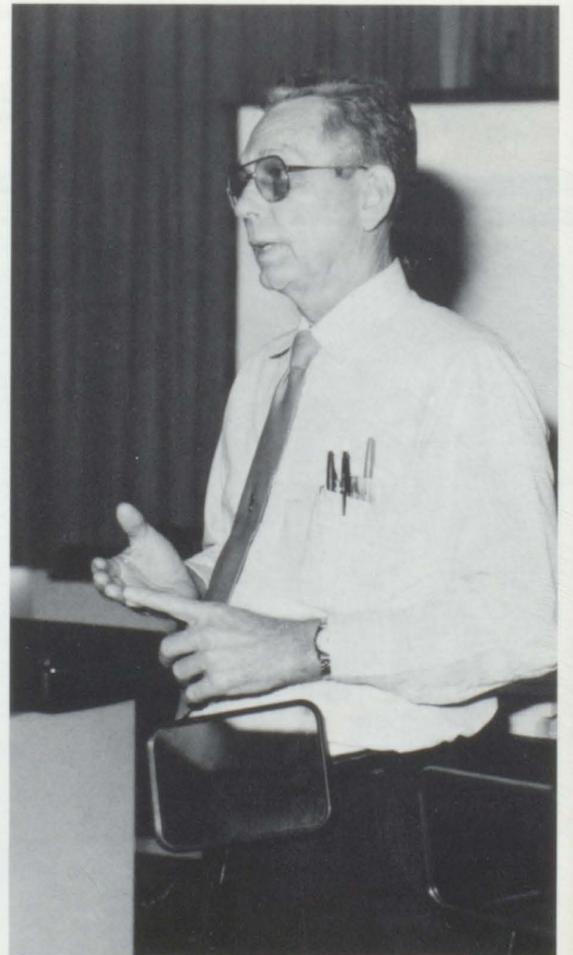

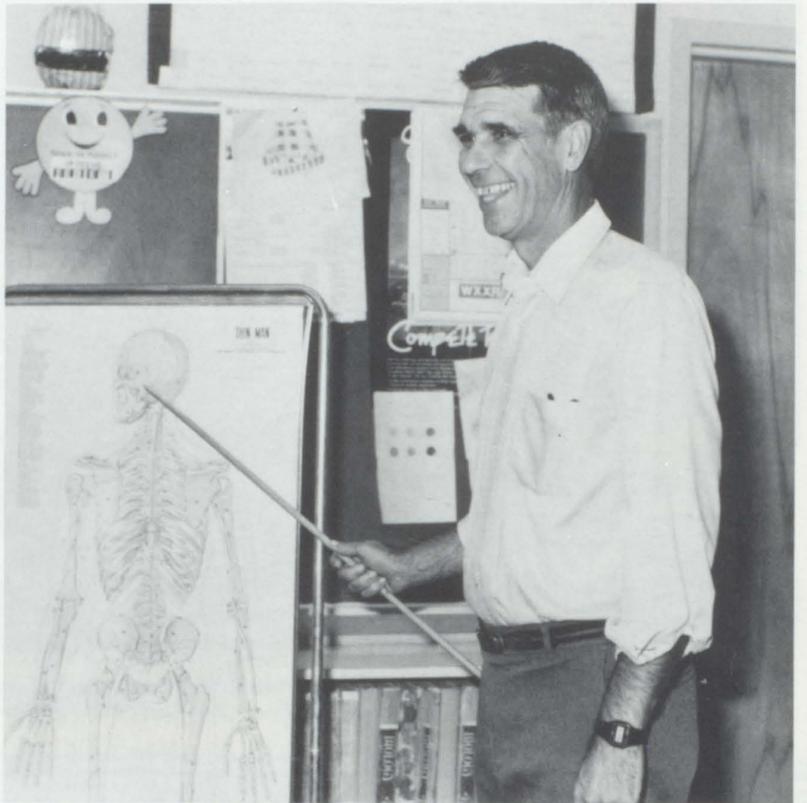

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America

V.I.C.A. is the abbreviation for Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. The officers are (left to right) Brandi Carden, President; Tonia Schnelle, Vice President; Ashleigh Lee, Secretary; Brandi Myers, Treasurer; Wendy Walker, Parliamentarian; Skye Lucas, Reporter. This year ICT-VICA had a total of twenty-seven members which include: First Row: William Speegle, Ike Blaylock, Paul Moss, Brian Richardson. Second Row: Jeremy Brannon, Michael Christensen, Dax Arnold, Greg Weissand, Chris Willingham, Jody Clark. Third Row: Jason Willingham, Steven Wilhite, Jason Nielsen. Fourth Row: Stephanie Freeman, Mindi Callan, Tammy Townsend, Leslie Linker, Tina Kelley, Toni Van Gordon, Crystal Hicks, Katie Adams.

ENTERTAINMENT

- Administration
- Teachers G183
- Staff G189

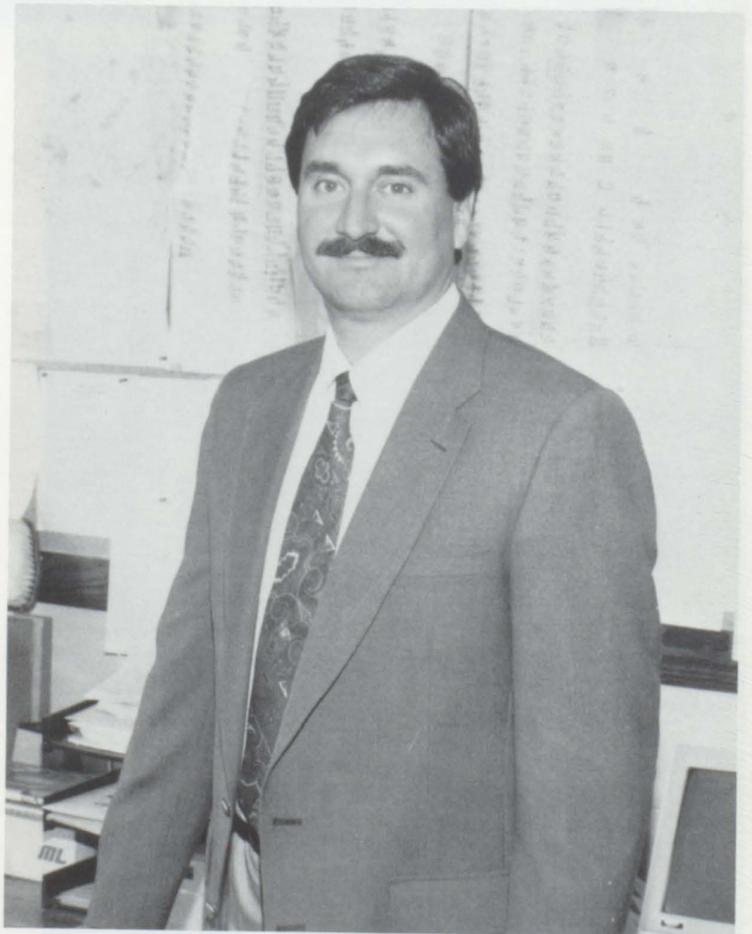

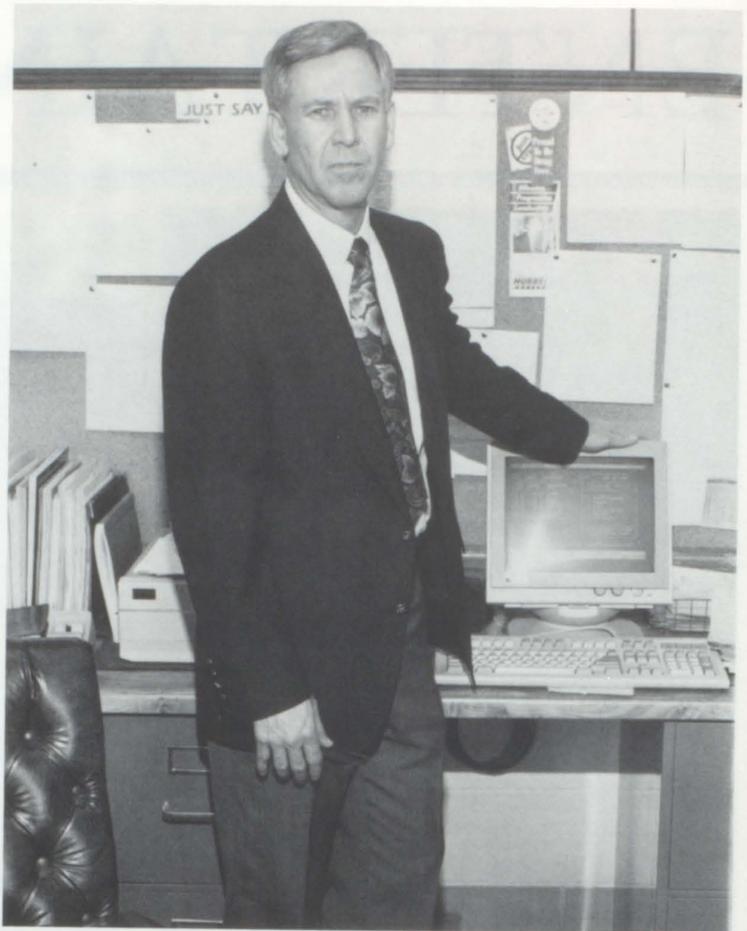

Sometimes we forget that teachers are humans just like the rest of us. This year a survey was sent to all of the teachers; some of the responses were found to be rather interesting. There are over 800 years of teaching experience between the faculty at Cullman. Eleven teachers have more than twenty-six years of experience with Mr. Jack Knight leading the way with thirty-six years. It was also found that sixteen faculty members have attended the University of Alabama in Birmingham, while others have attended schools such as Florida State, Penn State, Texas A and M, and Autonoma University in Mexico. Throughout these next few pages, you will find information on each teacher in the following order: the teachers' name, their subject, what schools they attended, years of experience, and their hobbies.

IN THE NEWS, 1992 AMERICA WINS THE COLD WAR:

August 19, 1991: A date to remember. On this day the Soviet Union began a long trip into turmoil. News stations all over the world announced that Mikhail Gorbachev, the leader of the Soviet Union, had become "ill" while vacationing in Crimea. His vice president, Gennadi Yanaev, was taking over his duties. How strange it seemed that the public was never told where Gorbachev was during his sickness or what kind of disease he had acquired. It was easily discovered that a coup was taking place. The question still remained, however; who was responsible?

The state of emergency was imposed by a junta consisting of the prime minister, the heads of three security services (defence ministry, KGB, interior ministry), and representatives of the armed forces in the Soviet Union. The timing of the coup made clear its purpose. On Tuesday of that week, Mr. Gorbachev intended to sign a new union treaty. That treaty would have delegated nearly all significant central government powers to the republics which would be recognized as "sovereign states." For many Soviet leaders, this was too democratic. Gorbachev's glasnost plan was "bad" enough.

Although the day of the coup was probably decided some time in advance, it was poorly planned. It was six hours after the announcement of Mr. Gorbachev's illness before tanks appeared on the street. When the rifle division and airborne division finally arrived, it was an uncoordinated jam. Also, Soviet leaders were not willing to shed their own peoples' blood, which is what it takes to destroy opposition when attempting to pull off a successful coup. The only person of significance arrested was Gorbachev.

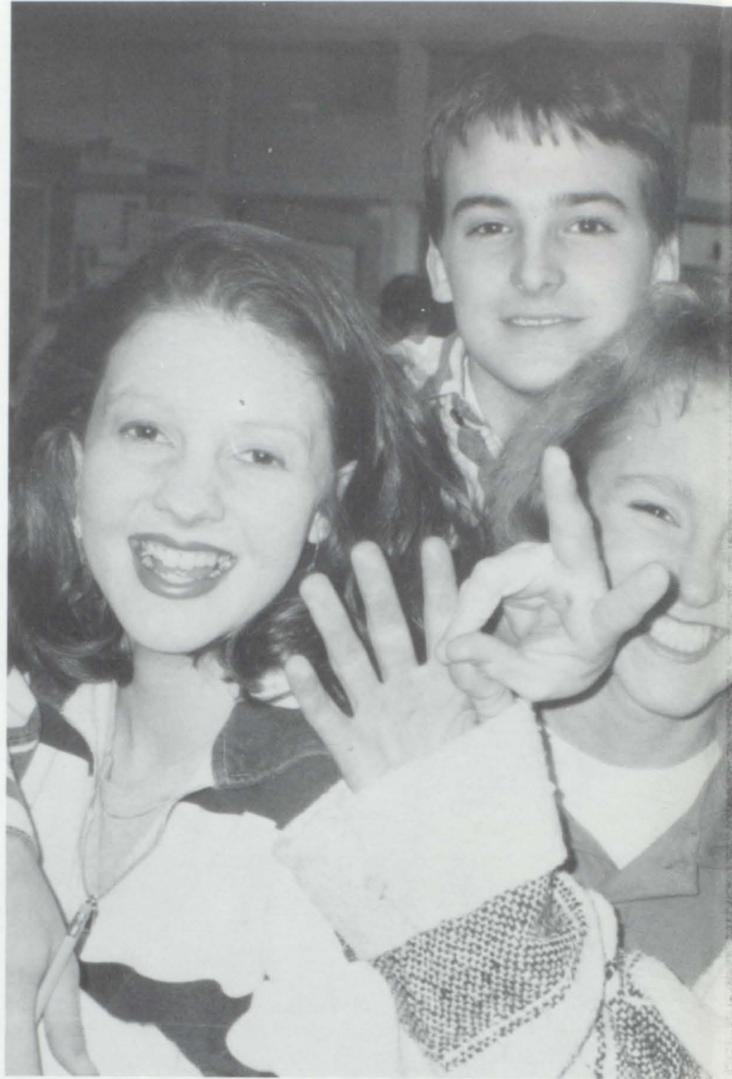

Enter: Boris Yeltsin, Russia's President. Mr. Yeltsin went to his parliament building, denounced the coup, and called for a general strike. Before he did this, Yeltsin had broken none of the committee's decrees; when he did, it was too late to arrest him. With Yeltsin opposing it, the coup began to lose control. The junta even lost control of its own media.

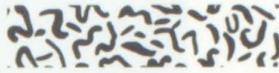

It was not long before Gorbachev suddenly reappeared, well again. Yeltsin took over, and Gorbachev was shunned away. The republics which form the Soviet Union began to withdraw, one by one, until there was no Union left. There was less and less food to buy. People would wait in line for hours, many times only to get nothing to eat. An anxious world waited to see what would become of the Eastern continent and if Russia's people would starve during the winter.

COURT TRIALS

The classic battle of the sexes moved into people's living rooms during the past year. The media brought several court trials into the public's eye. Two of them were the following: CLARENCE THOMAS VERSUS ANITA HILL: When President Bush nominated Clarence Thomas for Supreme Court Justice, several controversies arose. First, there were accusations that Thomas had smoked marijuana in his college days. America said, "O-kay, a lot of people did that." However, when Anita Hill, a respected Yale University graduate, came forward with accusations of sexual harassment, the United States Senate decided to investigate the issue. Clarence Thomas is now a Supreme Court Justice.

WILLIAM KENNEDY SMITH VERSUS PATRICIA BOWMAN: The Kennedys continued to stay in the spotlight this past year when William Kennedy Smith was accused of rape. His accuser, Patricia Bowman, claimed he raped her on the beach in front of Smith's Florida beach home. It was difficult to find an unbiased jury because the trial was publicized on every major network. After the trial began, CNN displayed the complete trial but kept the victim's face blotted out (so that her identity would not be revealed). Upon Smith's judgment of "not guilty," Bowman came forward to let the public know who she was and to relate her complete story to the press.

SUPER BOWL XXVI

On January 26, 1992, the Washington Redskins played against the Buffalo Bills. The Bills proved that they had been poorly placed when the Redskins scalped Buffalo in the first quarter. Buffalo never got the lead. The final score was Washington, 37, Buffalo, 24.

MAGIC JOHNSON

Earvin "Magic" Johnson announced his retirement from pro basketball in 1991 because he had become infected with the HIV virus — the virus that causes AIDS. A saddened country watched as one of the greatest basketball players said his goodbyes to his first love. Many people hailed Magic as a hero, a role model for children. Magic became an AIDS ACTIVIST and openly criticized President Bush for not doing enough about AIDS. However, others said Johnson was a hypocrite. Lewis Grizzard, a famous journalist from Georgia, said, "Find me a megabucks superstar who could have sexual partners by the U-haul trailer load, but who chooses not to, because it's 1992 and you can't do that kind of thing anymore. There's the hero."

DECEMBER 7, 1991

Upon the fiftieth anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor, a Japan-bashing era began. Most Americans blamed the Japanese for the American economy sliding into a recession. On the other hand, some economists blamed the American people themselves along with the government for lax trade laws with Japan and other foreign countries. The recession scared many people into saving their money instead of spending it. Profits for businesses during the Christmas season were at an all-time low because of fear of another Great Depression. Attempting to satisfy the American people, President Bush attended summit meetings with Japan to discuss trade. During the long-awaited-for talks, Bush "tossed his cookies" and was subject to several jokes on the homefront.
