WARNING

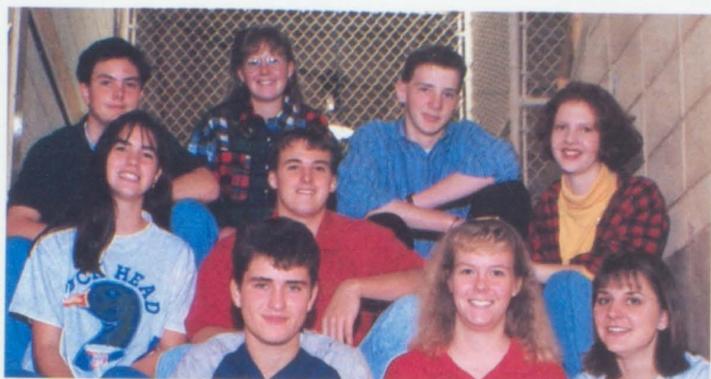

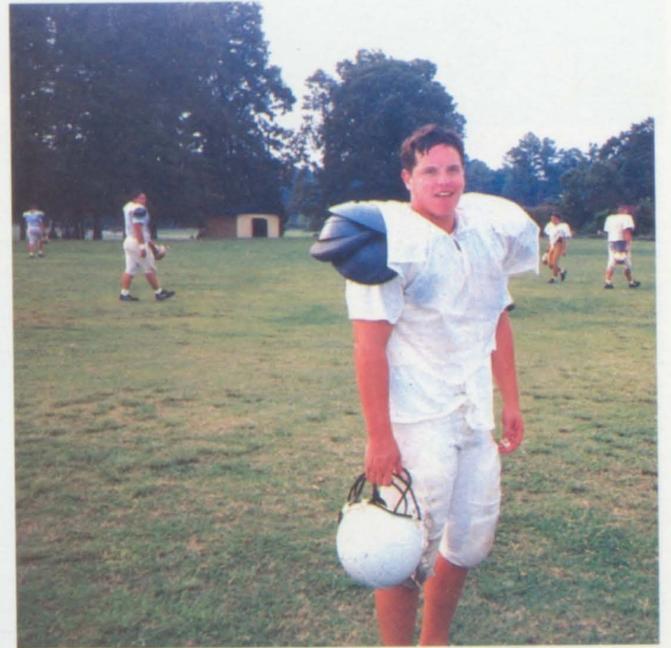

This book is not to be substituted for real life at Cullman High School. It should be used only as a supplementary aid to heighten the perception of your memories here. The specific scenes shown are only representatives of what you may remember.

Notes on PURPOSE

Each year is defined by time and place. The Southerner is a tangible tool intended to help you focus on this impermanent year in the permanent flow of life. This volume is designed so that you may find gratification in reflecting on the experiences of one year. Consider these experiences so that you might not accept a single interpretation but rather develop your own sense of past, present, and future.

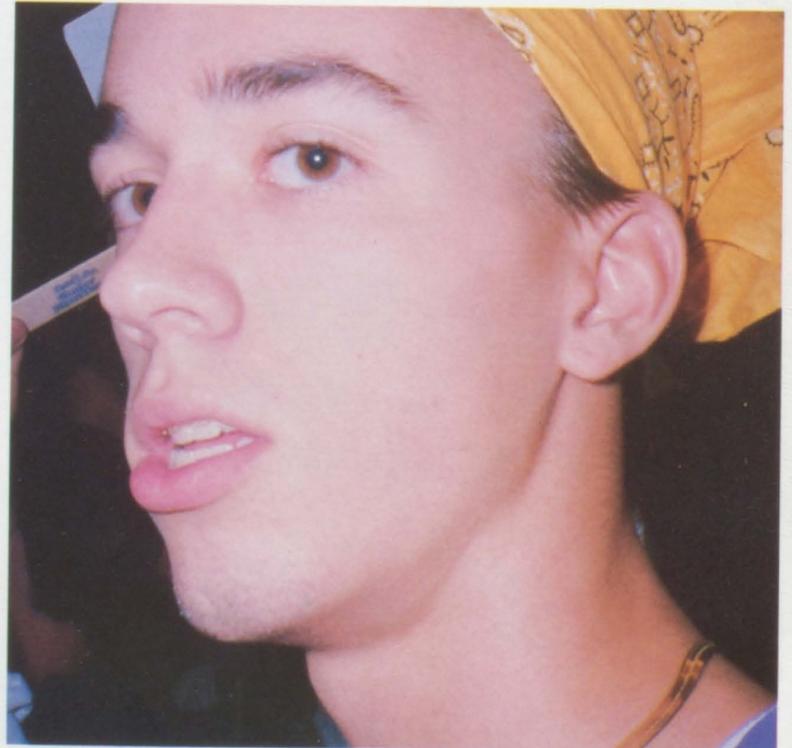

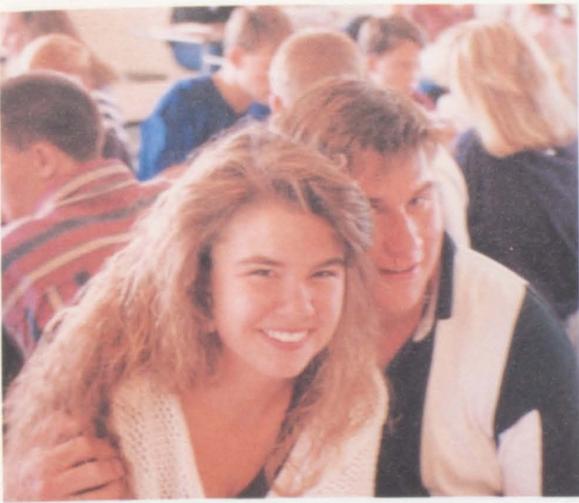

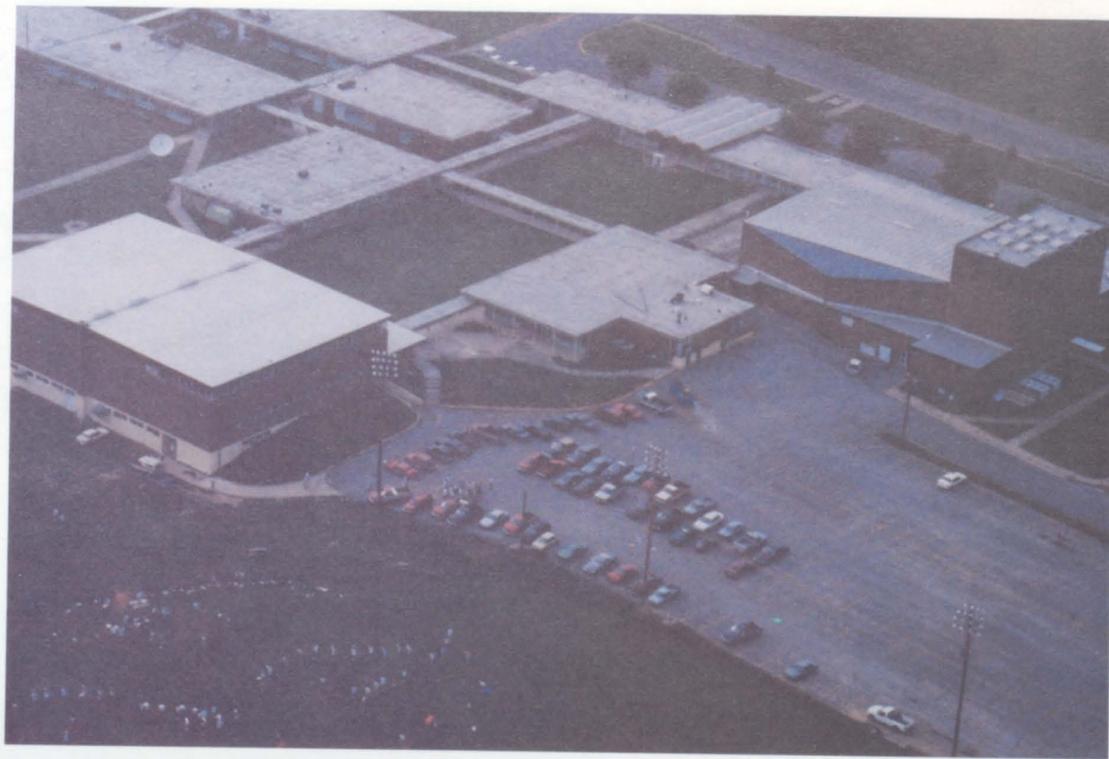

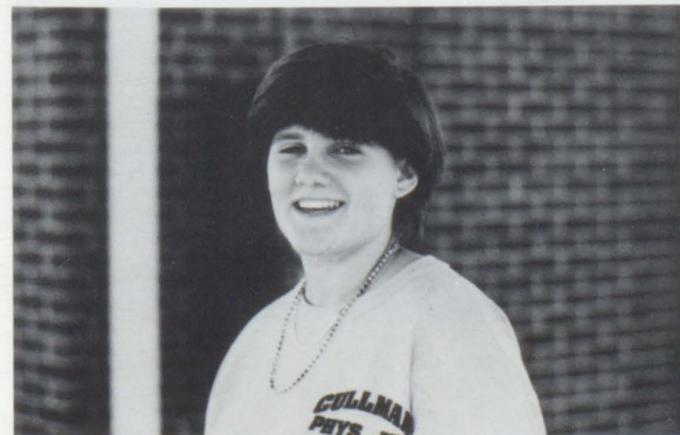

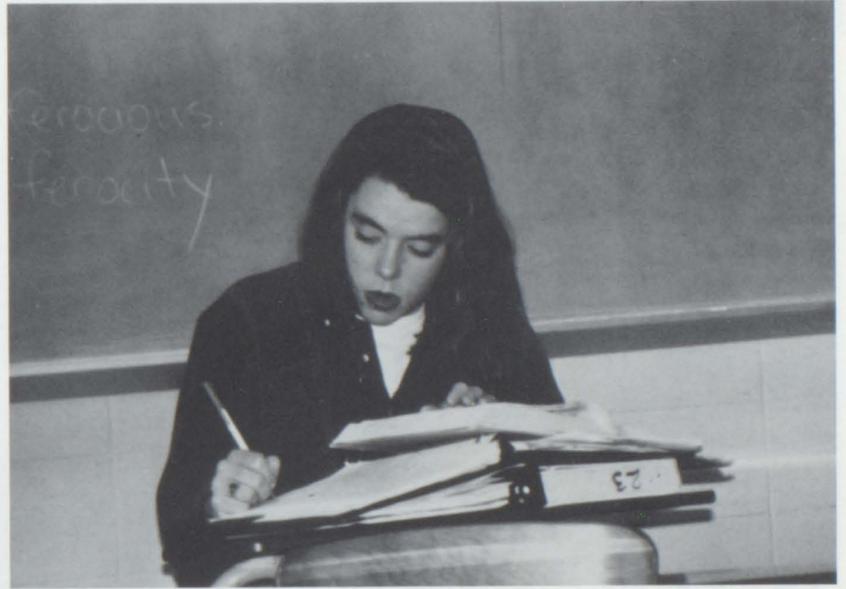

Notes on FOCUS

The presence of this moment is our focus. Each of us has moments of truth, purpose, revision, and confusion. Fragments of happiness of years in high school fly together and form threads of elation and threads of despair which in turn form the fabric of each memory. As we go through shallow eagerness and press on to earnest aspirations, each recollection becomes more stirring as memory is tied to memory.

The Game

by: Josh Widner

It was the Friday of Homecoming week, and I had just returned from eating. As I walked into the locker room, I saw my companions getting ready for war, just as I was about to do. The atmosphere was grim. Because of anticipation, I could hardly breathe. I continued to strap on my pads, and then it came to pass. It was time. As we marched down that long walk to the field, I could see that there was not an empty seat in the stands. Suddenly, I heard sirens. Someone said, "Alert! Alert! Here come your Cullman Bearcats!" AC/DC then roared out of the speakers. The blood flowed through my veins like hot lava. A.J., Bill, and I were to speak as captains, and we were followed by all the other hand-locked senior warriors. Finally, it was time for the national anthem. As it was played, I watched the flag blow in the wind. I felt a rush that was unmatched. The whistle blew, and it was time for a dogfight. The two teams met with a mighty clash. We rumbled and fought, and then it came to a screeching halt. We had lost. We had fought hard but came up short. As I walked back up to the locker room, I noticed a look on the faces of my fellow black-suited warriors. I knew what it meant because I felt it too. We shall go out as winners and with class. CULLMAN WILL NOT BE DENIED IN THE STATE PLAYOFFS! WE SHALL OVERCOME ALL OBSTACLES!

My First Homecoming by: Patton Evans

As a freshman I never quite understood what Homecoming meant. I knew, of course, that Homecoming was a football game that only came around once a year and was supposedly a "big-to-do" for everyone. What I did not know was all the time and effort and planning that goes into the preparation for the week preceding the big game.

Homecoming Week at Cullman High School is difficult to explain, especially if you have never participated in it. I can only imagine a stranger's first impression of Cullman High if he visited the school during one of those five uncanny days. Expecting to see normal teenagers wearing normal jeans and normal shirts, the stranger would see something very different.

Monday everybody was walking around with their favorite sunglasses, hat, and a drink in hand.

Tuesday was a cool day. It was cowboy/cowgirl/Indian Day. I dressed up like a cowgirl and borrowed a friend's cowboy hat. Everyone said I looked like Kyle Petty with that hat on.

Wednesday was Dress-Up Day. I got to wear my favorite black dress and a pair of my mom's high heels.

I had been looking forward to Thursday all week. It was Pajama

Day. I wore men's pajamas that were from the 70's.

Friday, Black and Gold Day, was by far the best! My favorite part was looking at all of the hall decorations. The freshmen's "Pet Cemetery," the sophomores' "Bearcat Lagoon," the juniors' "History of the Bearcats," and the seniors' "Welcome to the Jungle" were baffling. I was never expecting how in depth everything was. I could tell everyone put a lot of hard work and time to perfect their decorations.

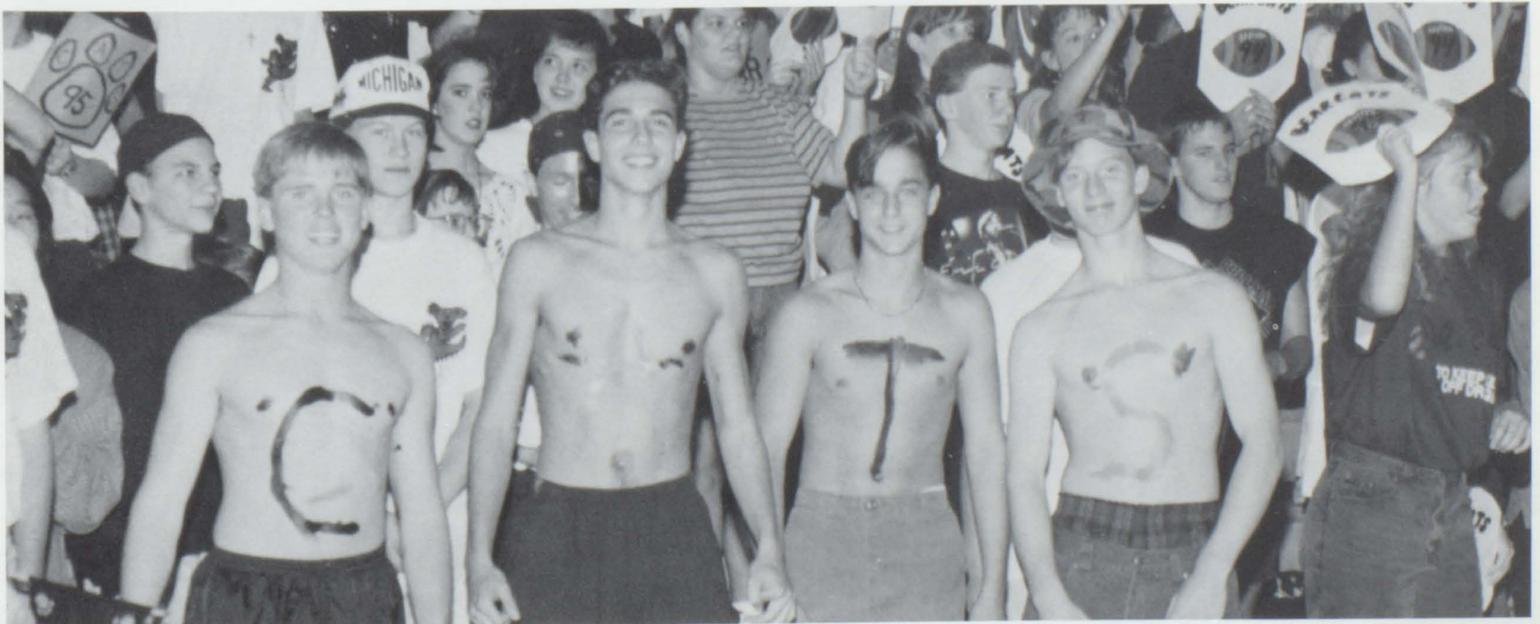

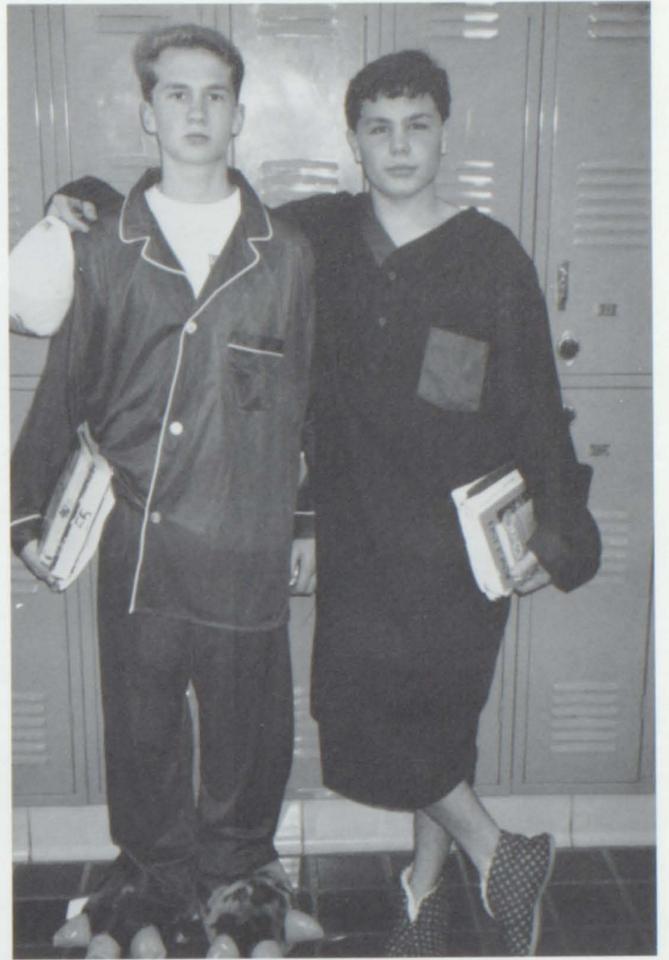

I know everyone had a great time at Field Day whether they were a participant or in the audience. Everyone I was with must have gotten a sore throat from all of the cheering that went on.

Even though we did not win the game, the dance made up for it. I had a wonderful time. Everyone danced and looked like they were having the times of their lives.

My first Homecoming Week was great, and I cannot do it justice just by putting a description of it down on a sheet of paper. One really has to have experienced it before he understands what all the excitement is all about.

KEY EVENTS

Mr. and Miss C.H.S.

Amy Freeman and Garlan Gudger

Miss Amy Freeman

Amy's colorful personality and cheerful smile are a common sight around the campus of Cullman High School. These characteristics contribute to the fact that she has been chosen as Class Favorite since her freshman year. Amy is an active member of Student Council serving as Vice-President. Her interests include Speech and Drama, with competition at a district and state level since her sophomore year. Having naturally attractive features and impressive interview skills, Amy earned the title of Miss Southerner 1992.

Mr. Garlan Gudger

Garlan's sparkling wit and boyish charm have earned him the title of Mr. C.H.S. As an outstanding athlete, he has played varsity football and basketball since his sophomore year. Garlan has been involved in Student Council and Key Club since his freshman year. As a result of his friendly attitude and leadership abilities, Garlan was selected as Class Favorite for three years, and he was elected Vice-President his freshman and sophomore years.

Girls' State and Boys' State

Girls' State and Boys' State each consist of a week of mock government sponsored by the American Legion. Two boys and one girl from every school in the state are selected by submitting an essay to their principal, which is then evaluated by a committee of selected faculty. The girls spend their week at Huntingdon College campaigning for anything from city council to governor. The boys reside at Samford University where they listen to prominent speakers such as Governor Hunt and Lieutenant Governor Folsom.

During the week the participants visited the state capital and were present at a Supreme Court ruling. The week ended with an inauguration ceremony which installed the newly elected Girls' State and Boys' State officers.

National Merit Scholars

The National Merit Scholarship Program is a yearly competition in which more than 50,000 scholastically talented high school students are identified and honored. Approximately 35,000 Commended Students will be named on the basis of a nationally applied Selection Index Score, which is usually above the ninety-fifth percentile of college-bound juniors. Some 15,000 of the highest scorers will qualify as Semifinalists, and they will have the opportunity to become a Finalist. About 6,500 Merit Scholarships worth approximately $25 million will be awarded to these exceptional students.

Finalist: Emily Messersmith

Commended Students:

David Atkins
Zana Free
Sean Ewald

Daughters of American Revolution Good Citizen Award

Zana Free was nominated by the C.H.S. faculty to be DAR Good Citizen of the Year. After submitting her application and essay, Zana was selected as Cullman County's DAR Good Citizen. She is an outstanding student and will represent Cullman well in the state competition.

Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation Award

The Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation annually sponsors seminars which give sophomores all over the country the chance to interact with local and national leaders. Sophomores submit an essay-answered questionnaire to an awards committee. The sophomore with the highest ranking from the committee then attends a state HOBY convention in Huntsville. At the convention in Huntsville, informal question-and-answer sessions are held to discuss present and future issues of education, leadership, government, and business. The main objective of the seminar is to encourage leadership and concern for the sensitivity of others.

American Field Service was begun because ambulance drivers in the two world wars had seen the horrors of war close up, and they decided to do something to foster peace in the future. They felt that if students from each country had a chance to get to know one another, they would become more tolerant and understanding of other cultures. They believed that tolerance and understanding multiplied enough times would help to prevent wars, and so they formed AFS.

Cullman High School's AFS chapter has hosted students from every continent except Antarctica. Our own students have gone to all parts of the globe as Americans Abroad. Our activities involve sponsoring the first dance of the year, as well as either hosting an AFS Weekend for AFS exchange students around the Southeast or else participating in a Short Exchange with AFS club members from another state.

Model Senate

The Birmingham-Southern College Model Senate program gave Jason Connell, Melanie Martin, Casey Grier, and Jill Bishop real insight into legislative processes. The participants were selected by essay competition, and each one represented a current Senator in the mock Senate. Students obtained voting records and major legislative interests of their Senators and researched special individual interests. During four days in November, the seniors caucused, attended legislative meetings, and held sessions until late hours. At night banquets and recreational activities provided much needed breaks. The action-packed experiences familiarized the student Senators with actual government workings and created a desire to serve in political processes. "Jill Bishop"

Close-Up Club

The highlight of being in Close-Up Club was taking a trip to Williamsburg, Virginia and Washington, D.C. The trip lasted from November 29th to December 5th. To prepare for the trip, Close-Up Club met every Monday. During those meetings the members discussed things that they would see and do in Washington, D.C. While in Washington, D.C. the students got to sit in on a Congressional meeting. After that they had small group meetings with individual Congressmen. After the trip the students went away knowing all about the Democratic process.

LEO CLUB

The LEO Club is a service club affiliated with Lions International or more specifically, the Cullman Lions Club. Four-year senior members are the club's only remaining charter members. The club was formed during the 1989-90 school year. It has grown to a membership of well over 125, the largest club at Cullman High School.

The members are truly given the opportunity to serve their school and community. Each year there are so many members who surprise themselves when they feel the rewards of community service and the gift of giving of one's self. Through personal contact with someone in need, the members experience self-fulfillment. They even discover that working to help others and being involved in the community can be very enjoyable.

In July the LEO Club helped with the district swim meet at Smith Lake. August's membership drive resulted in a total of fifty new members. All members were required to work at the concession stand, information booth, or ticket booth at the Cullman County Fair. "Sightsaver mints" were sold during halftime of the Cullman vs. Walker County football game. Over $400.00 was donated for Alabama Sight. The installation banquet, where new members and officers were installed, was held at First United Methodist Church in November. Members helped sort and pack toys for the Christmas Love project. In January the LEOS sponsored a dance at the Civic Center. The LEOS helped the Lions with their annual catfish supper in February. The annual volleyball game with the Lios and Lionesses was held during the month of March. The club sent two girls and boys to the Alabama Lions High School Camp. The LEOS assisted as ushers at the Community Concert Association's May performance.

The LEO Club plans to purchase an electronic sign for the Cullman High School lunchroom to keep students up to date on upcoming events. This has been an ongoing project since most of our money is given to charitable causes.

Cullman High School Key Club continues to carry on a tradition of excellence. Last summer CHS Key Club sponsored a "Special Swim" in affiliation with the Cullman City Nesmith pool staff. They also assisted in the South Trust auction, which benefitted Cullman High School. The Key Club services for the 1992-1993 school year include maintaining the football after all home games, raising the flag at every home game, and changing the marquee. The members also organize several fundraisers during the school year. Some of these projects include selling turkeys to benefit the Alabama Boys' Ranch, the annual Bucket Brigade to help the American Diabetes Association, and selling Valentine baskets to profit Hospice. Key Club's annual Sweetheart Ball was held on February 27th. For Homecoming Key Club sponsored the bonfire and also sold t-shirts. The Rotary Club of Cullman and the Cullman Academic Boosters Club helped support the tournament.

The Math Teams competed in the State Written Competition at the University of North Alabama on March 19. They also competed in the State Ciphering Contest in Montgomery on April 24. Cullman has traditionally placed in the top five among 5-A teams in the state and has won the top award three times in the past six years.

The year's grand finale was the Academic Banquet that was hosted by the Academic Boosters Club. "Letters" were awarded to active members.

COACHES

Matt Scott
Don Wilbanks
Dale Cook
Andy Page
Mark Britton

An era came to an end when the Cullman/Albertville game was over. Head Coach Dale Cook stepped down from the helm of the mighty ship he had guided for nine years, a span only outlived by one other, Coach Oliver Woodard. Cook left the field as the second winningest coach in the history of Cullman football with a record of 57 wins and 39 losses. That is a .746 winning percentage. When asked what he would miss most about coaching, Cook replied "I will miss getting to be part of the kids."

Coaching and "kids" have been part of Cook's life for the past thirty years. Cook recalls the past season as being "a lot of fun till we ran out of gas." Football is a fun game, but it also teaches some important fundamentals that will last a lifetime. "Nothing is easy, and you don't ever get anything for free," was Cook's reply when asked what he felt football instilled into individuals most. Throughout his nine year reign as head coach, Cook strived to improve the program and to help players make important decisions concerning their careers. Cook has been successful in both endeavors and will be greatly missed by the program.

Another individual who retired after the 1992 football campaign was Assistant Coach Don Wilbanks. Wilbanks had been coaching football since 1976. "I guess my favorite part of coaching is being able to see what you teach be demonstrated on the field," said Wilbanks. The past two years have been perfect examples of execution. When everyone does his job, good things will happen. Wilbanks emphasizes that good things do not always take place: "Sometimes your best isn't good enough, and that's just part of growing up." It was evident that Wilbanks cared for the "kids" that played, and they respected him for it.

OVERVIEW

It was a season of ups and downs, but the ups greatly outweighed the downs. At one point in the season, Cullman was ranked number two in class 5-A for the entire state. The high school and the city were honored by this illustrious ranking. Cullman seemed to be on top of the world until injuries began to plague the squad. Two starters were lost, and two weeks later the team would fall to the Hartselle Tigers. This was the beginning of three weeks of frustration. The Bearcats were always just inches or seconds away from pulling a victory out of the tightly grasped hands of defeat.

No matter what anyone says, it does take a slight amount of luck to win a football game. On one given night, anyone can be thrown for a loss. Yet, what makes one a winner? An undying desire to excel, to compete, to succeed makes one a winner. This characterizes the 1992 squad perfectly. A championship ring was not in the plan, even though everyone strived so hard for it. Victory and defeat will give us memories that we can look back upon for a lifetime. Area champions will always go hand in hand with the year 1992. We will never forget the closing two games of the season when the players came together to lay a single heart on the line. This was the team's season, not any one individuals' season. Statistics may be forgotten, but the memories that this unit has shared will live on forever.

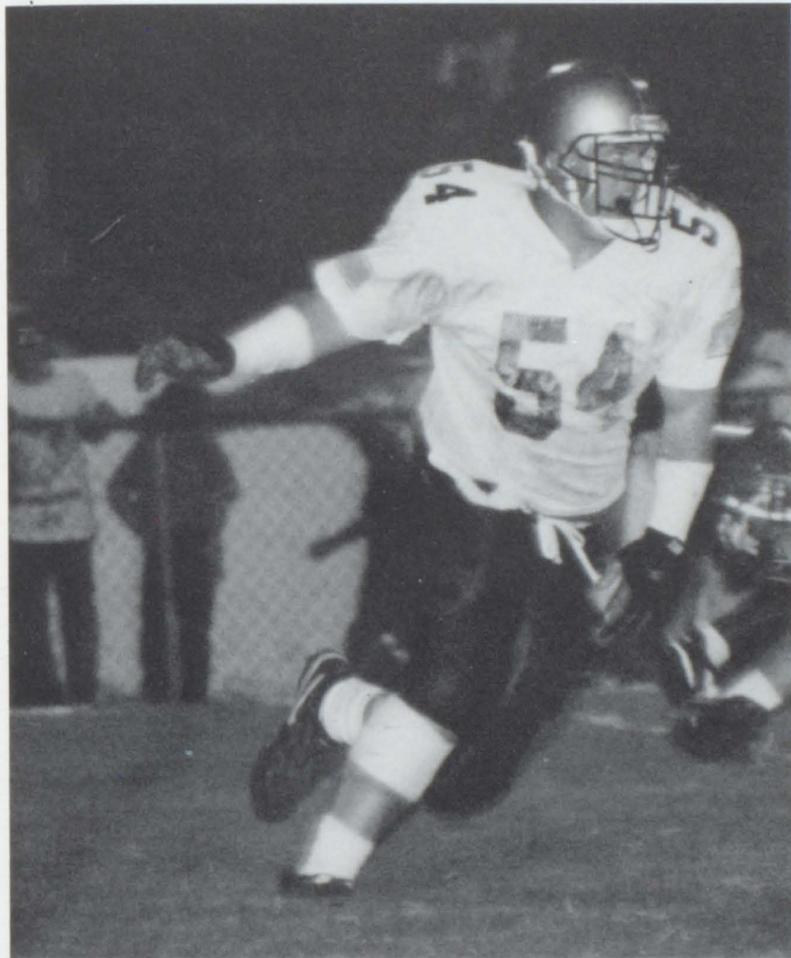

hog (HAWG), n. 1. pig. 2. an adult pig weighing more than 240 pounds, raised for its meat. 3. any animal of the same family as the pig. 4. INFORMAL. a stingy, grasping, gluttonous, or filthy offensive lineman.

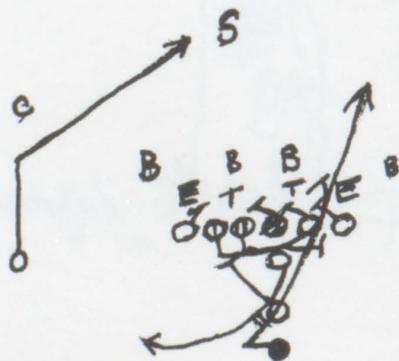

ONE FOR THE RECORD BOOK

2,186 yards: That is a little over a mile of running. Sounds easy, except take into account that eleven defensive players are constantly pounding on you, and you will have accomplished no small feat. A. J. Lamar did just that this past year by running behind the biggest offensive line in the state. A.J. was the first back ever to reach the 2,000 yards mark, and he was the all-time leading rusher in the history of Cullman football. A.J. will be the first person to tell someone that he did not do this alone. This record was an honor to the team as much as to A.J.

They won all Superior ribbons at camp and all of the Seniors were chosen as All-Star Cheerleaders. Another honor that was awarded these young ladies was at the Cullman County Fair. The Cullman Squad was chosen as the 1992 Cullman County Fair Champions. These young girls definitely showed class as well as talent as they cheered during games and at competitions.

The Girls then started to prepare for the area tournament being hosted by Cullman on November 28th. Cullman's area consisted of Boaz and Gunter-ville. Cullman defeated both of their opponents and moved on to the sub-state tournament. The All-Area Team was announced and from Cullman was Leah Johnson, Tenneil Welch, and Michelle Corrick. Mia Murphree was named MVP of the tournament. Having won area, Cullman was able to host the sub-state tournament. The girls defeated Fort Payne in their first sub-state match. Cullman played Athens in the finals which proved to be an endurance match. Athens finally best Cullman in the fifth game. With only one girl returning from playing varsity last year, Coach Heitmueller put together a team which displayed great ability. Although only in its first year to be recognized as an interscholastic sport at Cullman, the CHS Swim Team had an impressive year. The fourteen member squad was under the leadership of Head Coach Ernestine Linton and Assistant Coach Robin Denton. Unlike other sports, swimming has to be practiced throughout the year. The hard work paid off for the team by finishing in the top ten at the State Tournament in Tuscaloosa. Out of thirty-six schools, the boys finished sixth and the girls finished tenth. Scott Waldrop managed to bring home a bronze medal for his excellent performance at the State Tournament. High expectations have already been placed upon this team for next year.

CROSS

The Cullman High School Girls Cross Country Team has been known to receive statewide recognition for their phenomenal performances. This year was not an exception. Cullman finished the regular season unbeaten against Class 5A schools for the third straight year. The team then went to the state meet in Birmingham where they placed second. Since all six girls will return, the young squad has high expectations for next year.

BASKETBALL

The tradition of Cullman High School was finally broken with the addition of two new cheerleaders — BOYS! This memorable occasion was a turning point in the history of Cullman High School. The 1993 squad is divided into a black and gold squad, each cheering separately. Although this sport is time consuming, each individual enjoys it. These fifteen students can truly say they added to the spirit already shown at Cullman High School.

With only three seniors returning from last year, the team will be young but not inexperienced. The softball team will have a long season with close to twenty games and at least two tournaments, not including district, sub-state, and state. The Varsity team hopes to advance as far as state and end their year with a successful and winning season.

In February 1993, the girls won its second straight indoor state track championship, breaking records as they blew away the competition. Hillary Stiefelmeyer was the meet's Most Valuable Player. Hillary was first in the 60 yard hurdles, setting a state record with a finish in 9.16 seconds. She also won the 60 yard dash and the long jump. Amanda Patrick won the 880 with a new state record time of 2:30.6. She also placed third in the high jump.

The Cullman boys indoor track team, while being short-handed for the state meet with only four members, performed admirably and still managed to finish fourth in the state. Brandon Gardner finished first in the high jump for the second straight year, and Michael Dean placed third in the pole vault.

As usual, the Boys' Tennis Team was expected to have a good year. Three starters returned to the top six from the 1992 squad. They were Michael Willbanks, Toby Evans, and Lee Terry. Although the team was young and inexperienced, they were expected to contend for sectional champs and make it to the State tournament. Coach Don Willbanks, who coached the team since its inception in 1976, retired after the 1993 season. Willbanks was the driving factor for Cullman High School's dominance in the sport of tennis.

The 1993 Girls Tennis Team was a veteran group of tennis players. Senior leaders on the team were Noel Bergquist, Jill Bishop, Casey Grier, DeAnn Jones, and Suzanne Weathers. Clancy Johnson, Missy Brown, and Ema Whiterod also proved to be a vital part in the team's success. The girls' team was expected to contend for sectional champs and possibly have a chance to be the number one team in the State. The girls were coached by Don Wilbanks.

Principal
Mr. Leon Bentley

Although they do not get the credit and respect they deserve, most teachers at CHS love their jobs just the same. From the time they arrive at 7:40 until school is out at 3:05, these dedicated teachers are greeted with everything from students who do not have their homework to a fight in the quad. A recent survey across the United States shows that teachers have one of the most stressful jobs a person could have. Despite this and the fact that they are extremely underpaid, most seem to be satisfied with working with students and helping them achieve.

Lift up your faces, you have a piercing need
 For this bright morning dawning for you.
 History, despite its wrenching pain,
 Cannot be unlived, and if faced
 With courage, need not be lived again.
 Lift up your eyes upon
 This day breaking for you.
 Give birth again
 To the dream.
 Women, children, men,
 Take it into the palms of your hands.
 Mold it into the shape of your most Private need. Sculpt it into
 The image of your most public self.
 Lift up your hearts
 Each new hour holds new chances
 For new beginnings.

Do not be wedded forever
 To fear, yoked eternally
 To brutishness.
 The horizon leans forward,
 Offering you space to place new steps of change.
 Here, on the pulse of this fine day
 You may have the courage
 To look up and out and upon me, the Rock, the River, the Tree, you country . . .
 Here on the pulse of this new day
 You may have the grace to look up and out
 And into your sister's eyes and into
 Your brother's face, your country
 And say simply
 Very simply
 With hope
 Good Morning.
