

THERE IS A TIME...

The 2000 Southerner Volume 48

Sirinya,
What's up girl. I Thought I should sign your fire because you're so hot! I had a great time becoming such good buds w/ you this year, especially all the long notes you wrote me about your love tangles with Baxter. You had better keep it touch this summer, I'm sure I'll see you a ton. Have a great senior year.

Nathan Barnes

There is a time for everything,
a season for every activity under heaven.
A time to be born and a time to die.
A time to plant and a time to harvest.
A time to kill and a time to heal.
A time to tear down and a time to rebuild.
A time to cry and a time to laugh.
A time to grieve and a time to dance.
A time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones.
A time to embrace and a time to turn away.
A time to search and a time to lose.
A time to keep and a time to throw away.
A time to tear and a time to mend.
A time to be quiet and a time to speak up.
A time to love and a time to hate.
A time for war and a time for peace.

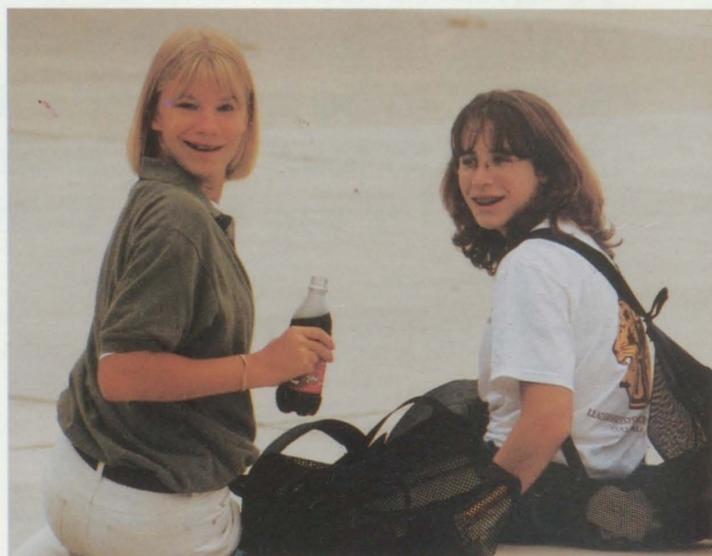

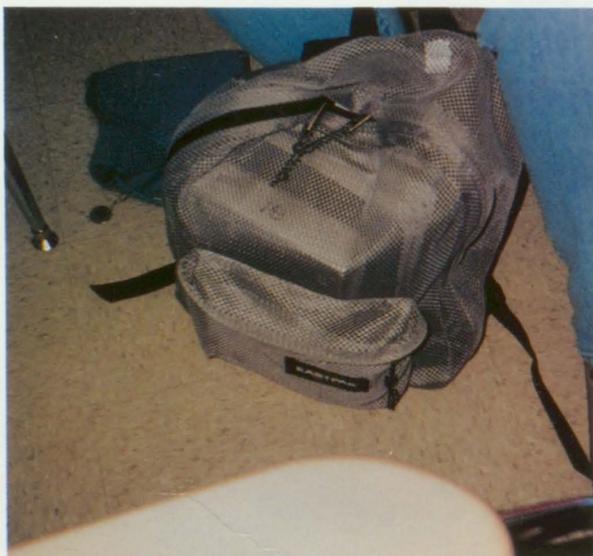

Ecclesiastes 3:1- 8

There is a time...

There is a time for change...

Solid backpacks are out! Only mesh and clear backpacks are acceptable according to the Bearcat Handbook. As usual, students displayed a variety in both bookbags and sports bags.

Football fans and reporters enjoyed a new concession stand/ press box which was completed during the summer. Measuring 92 feet by 18 3/4 feet, the press box contains ten boxes with approximately 72 square feet of space each. Other improvements over the previous building included a women's restroom and an extended covering.

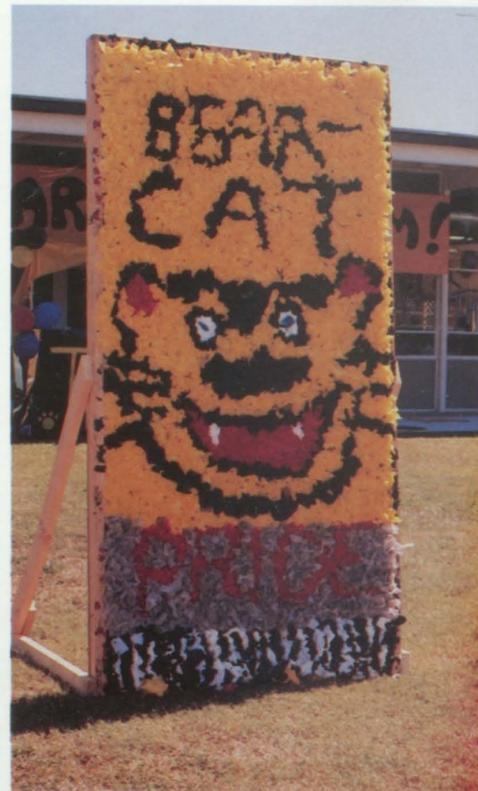

When asked about the facilities, Coach Bates voiced his appreciation to Dr. James St. Louis for purchasing "play clocks" and to Mr. Tommy Britt for donating a new goal post.

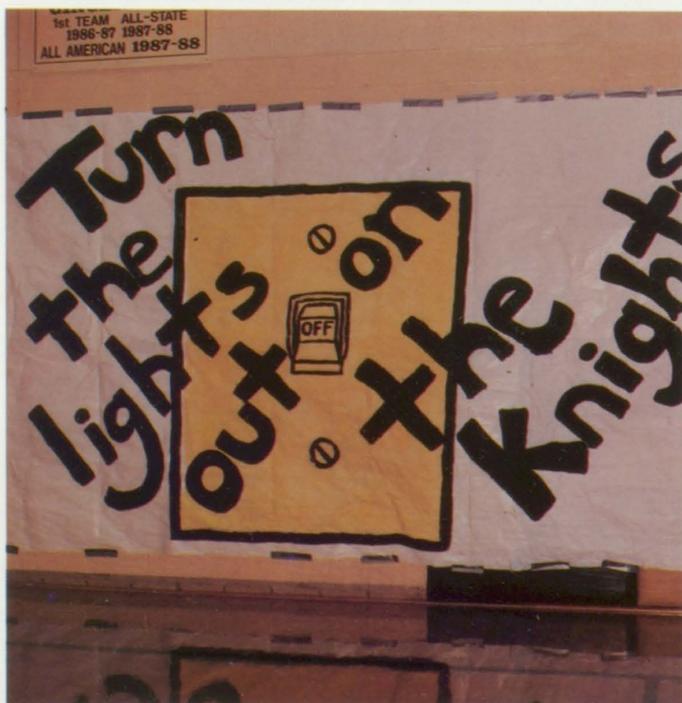

For the first time...

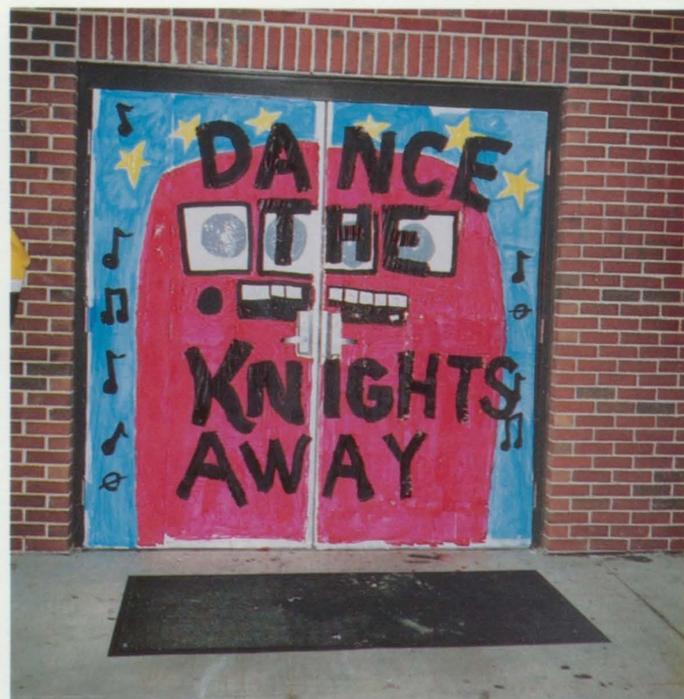

The Class of 2003 begins their destiny at their first Homecoming Pep Rally.

Their first pomping is displayed on the Quad.

A "bright idea" for their goal post banner places the Freshmen in third for that event.

The entrance to "C" Building encourages students to rock on towards victory over the Arab Knights.

Preston Miller lets out a Freshman holler as he and teammate Josh Phillips try to win Tug-of-War.

Freshman representative Allison Thornhill is escorted by Thomas Earnest.

Freshman representative Shelley Akers is escorted by Tyler Wood.

Nearing the end of the Mega Relay, the Freshmen scurry to complete the Commando Crawl.

The time is half gone...

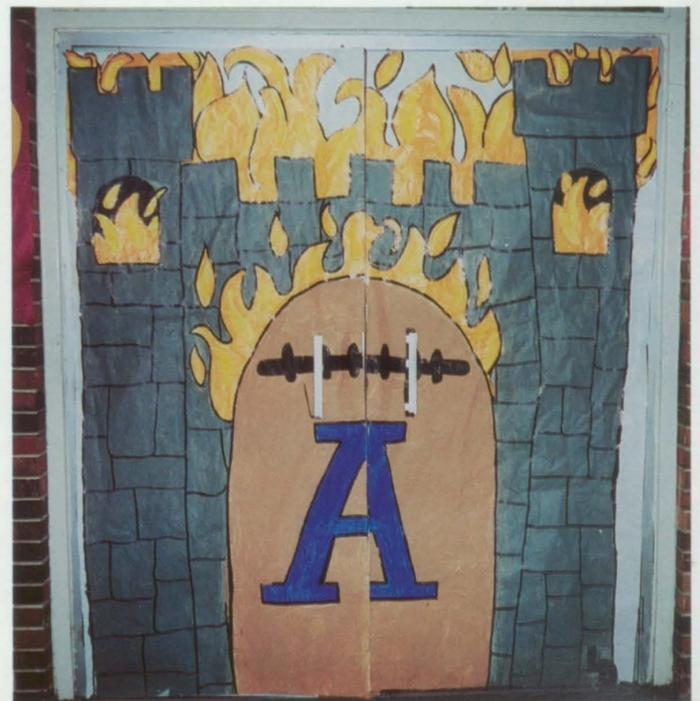

The class of 2002 rallies to cheer on the Bearcats.

"Surrender the Castle" captures third place in the Popping competition.

The Sophomore goal post banner takes second place, silencing the competition.

The blazing entrance to "B" Building greets students as they head to class.

Supported by Cory DeBruhl, Lauren Roden and O'Neal Gober "Ride the Wave."

The end has almost come...

Juniors win second place with their 3-D pomping.

Jessica Picogna's artwork knocked down the competition and helped the Juniors win second place in the door competition.

Nathan Townson tries to blow a bubble during the new bubble gum race.

Juniors want the Bearcats to "Knock- Out the Knights!"

Junior representative Sally Clark is escorted by Joshua Haynes.

Junior representative Lauren Bussey is escorted by Aaron Terry.

Josh Haynes works diligently putting up posters to make Homecoming a success for the Juniors.

Jaime Ugargovich and Baxter Bentley race across the field before their bannana "splits."

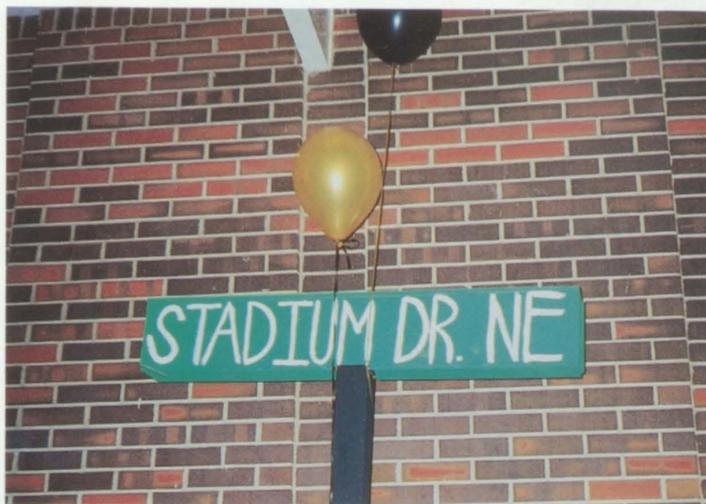

Burke Buster and Mary Catherine Fruitiger try to help their team during the ridin' the wave competition.

For the last time...

The Seniors want all the underclassmen to know, "This is our Homecoming!"

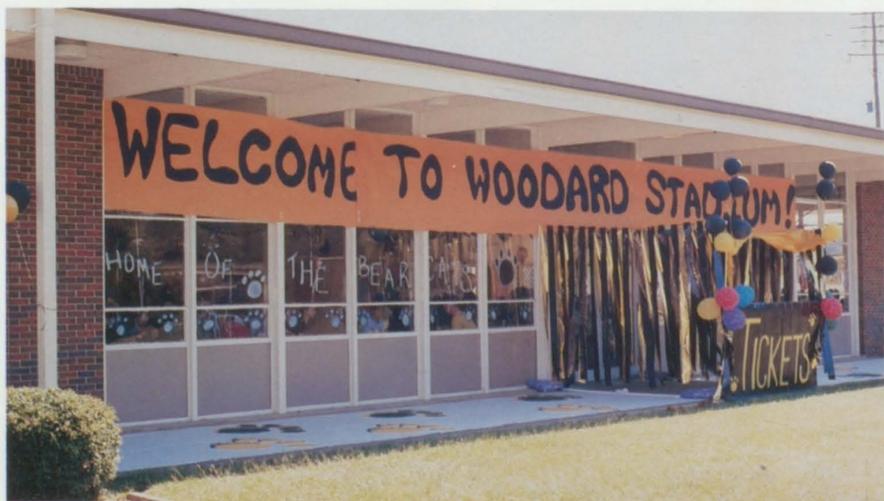

This Stadium Drive sign decorated the road leading up to the Senior's door.

Seniors win first place with their goal post banner; all the hard work in the barn pays off.

The Seniors win the door contest for decorating the lunchroom door as if it were Woodard Stadium. The Seniors also win the can food drive, the aluminum can drive, and the raffle ticket sales.

With this wonderful pomping, the Seniors win the heated competition for the best pomping.

The Seniors win first place in the penny drop, which raised a total of six hundred and seventy- four cents.

Senior pride is evident during homecoming.

Mary Hollis, the 1998 Homecoming queen, crowns Julie Phillips our 1999 Homecoming queen. Julie is escorted by Todd Rooks.

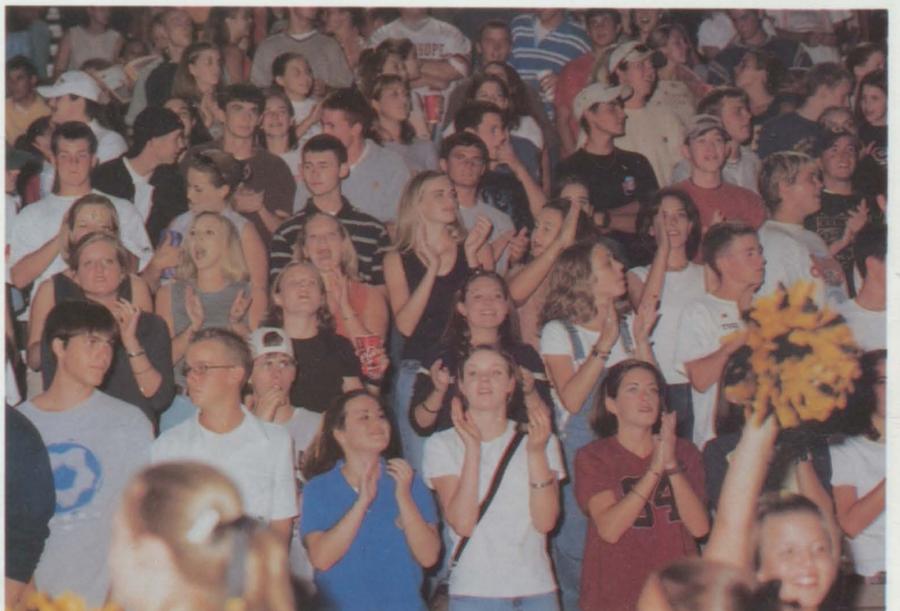

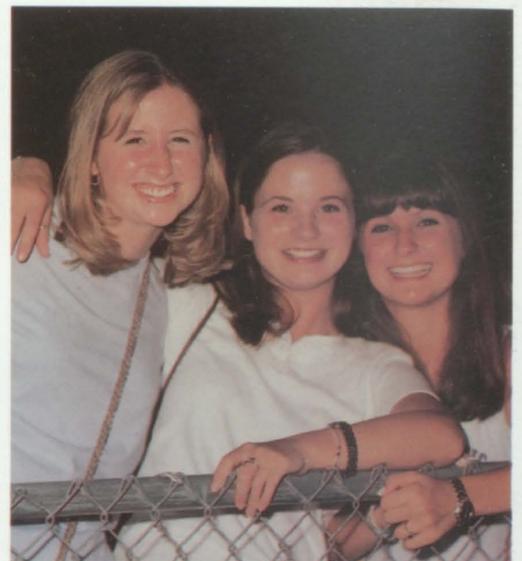

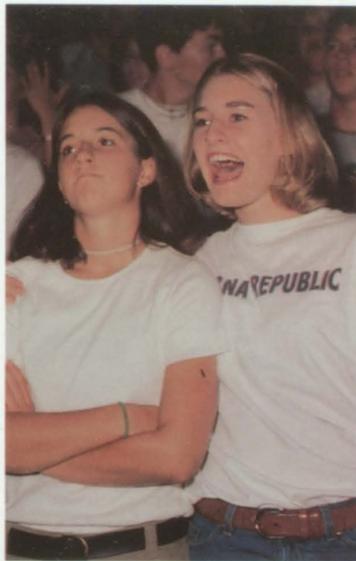

Senior representative Corrine Gibbs is escorted by Jay McPhillips.

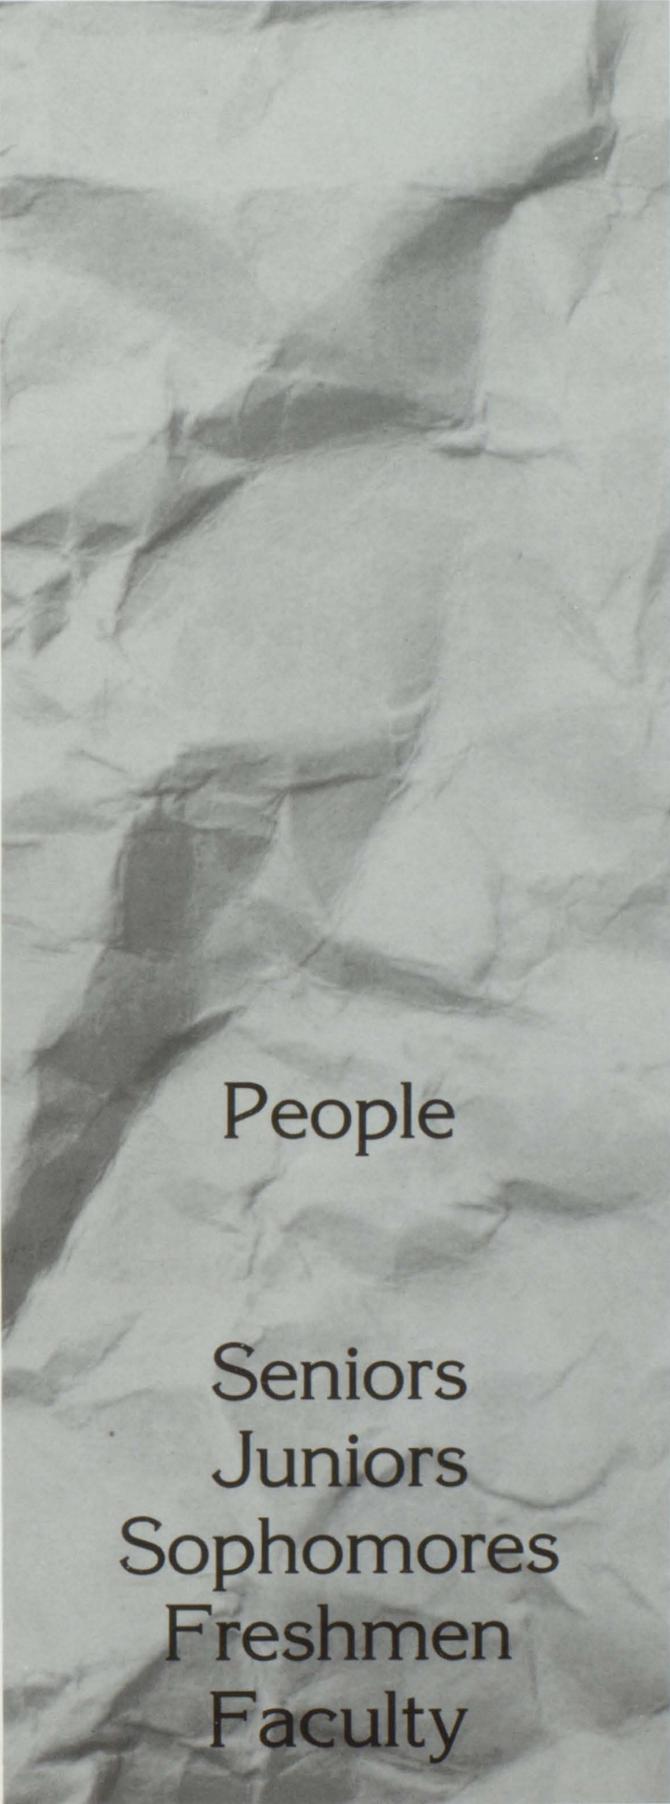

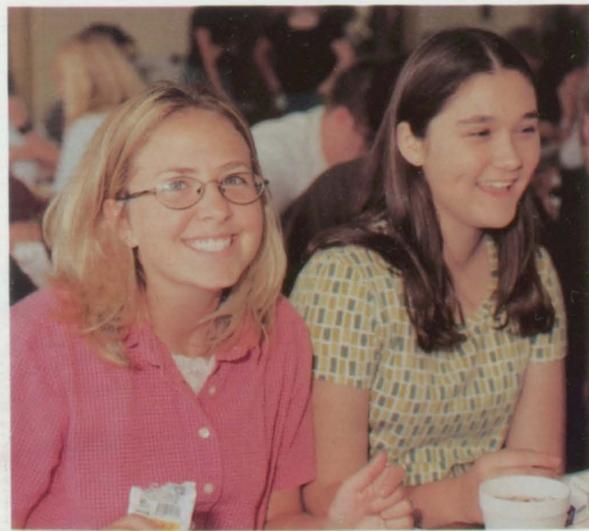

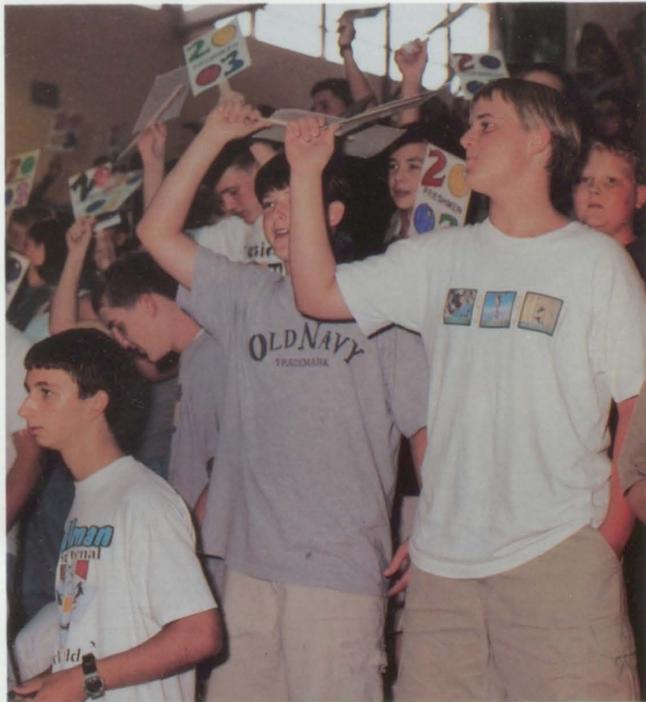

Excited Seniors run to capture their spirit stick.

The Alma Mater is a very emotional time for the Seniors.

A Time for the Class of 2000...

For one of the last times, Todd Rooks and Jay McPhillips enjoy the high school's wonderful lunches.

Joey Hood, Whit Price, and Elizabeth Hayes are few of several Seniors who show their spirit for the football players, such as Robbie Cogle.

Top: Seniors are ready to go when the band starts to play.

Left: Ms. Allred's sixth period class is always intrigued by what she has to say.

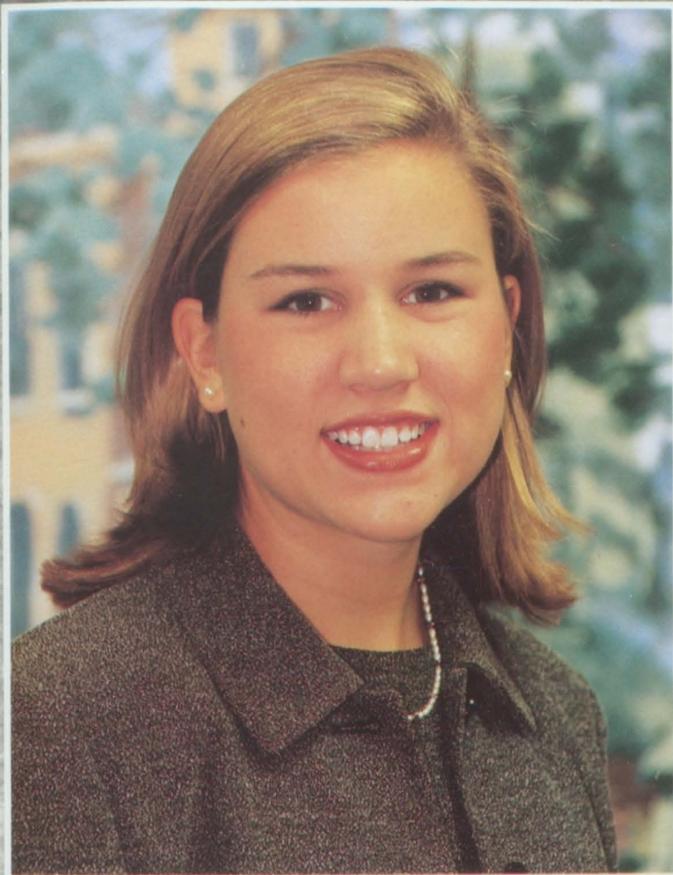

The Seniors show their attitude toward the Junior class t-shirts with this Senior run through banner.

Mr. and Miss CHS

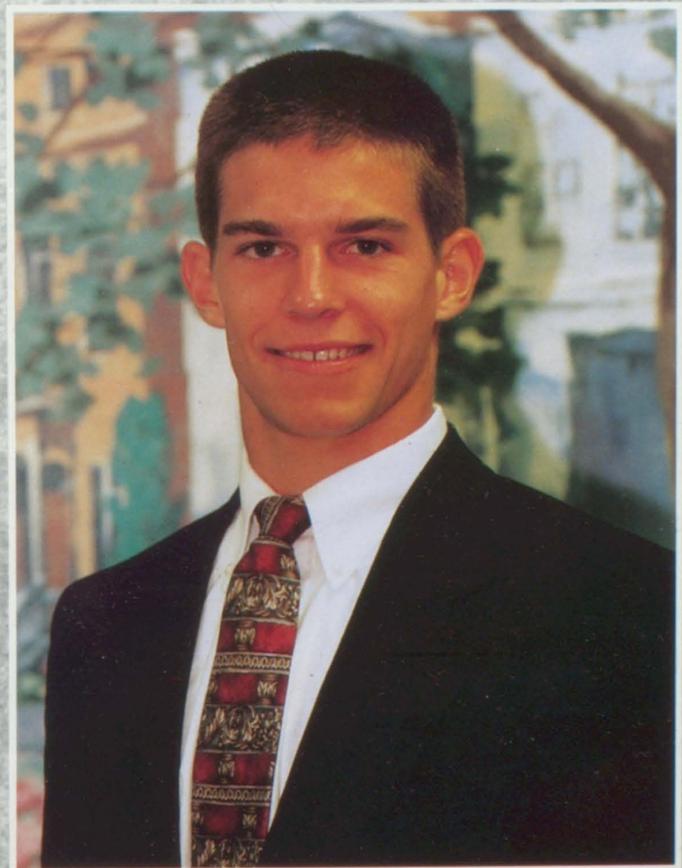

Wade Pettus and Julie Phillips

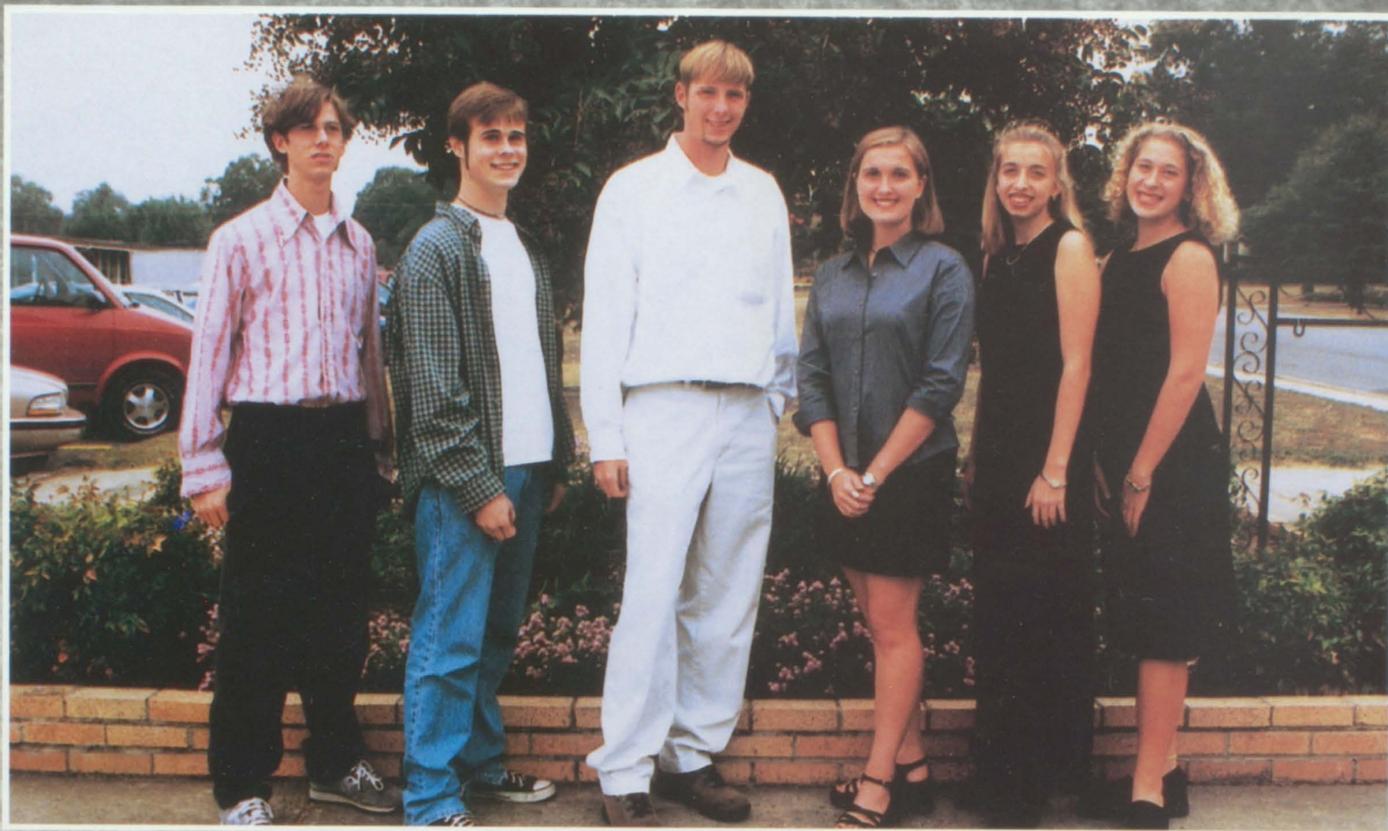

Julie Phillips was chosen by our student body as the 1999-2000 Miss CHS. She has been an active member of Student Council for four years, serving most recently as student body secretary. A member of French National Honor Society, Key Club, FBLA and FCA, Julie has served as both secretary and vice-president of Leo Club. She was chosen as the delegate to Alabama Girls' State and is a vital member of the girls' varsity tennis team. Julie's bright smile and eager personality will forever be remembered by the students and faculty of our school.

This year the Cullman High student body selected Wade Pettus as Mr. CHS. In addition to being secretary of the Senior class, Wade is a member of Student Council, National Honor Society and French National Honor Society. During his four years at CHS, he has been chosen by his class as Most Intellectual and Class Favorite. As a three-year-starter on the varsity football team, Wade has been a vital part of the Bearcat athletic program. Wade's hard work and determination both on and off the field have made his years at CHS a success.

There is a time to cry...

After the cheerleaders and other students roll the gym, the Seniors sing the Alma Mater in the middle of all the mess.

All the Seniors come together to sing the school's sacred Alma Mater.

Alma Mater

By old Cullman's northern border

Reared against the Sky

Proudly stands our Alma Mater

As the years go by.

Forward ever be our watchward

Conquer and Prevail,

Hail to thee our Alma Mater,

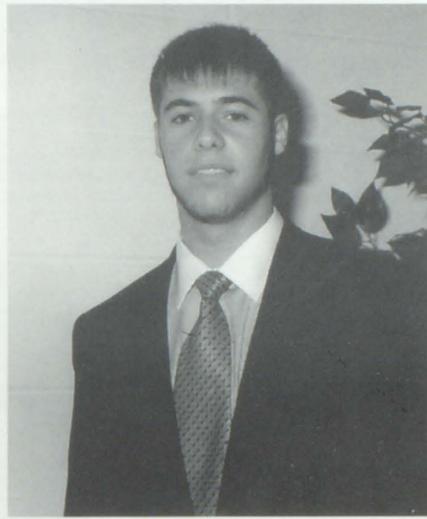

Cullman High, All Hail!

Choir I

Vocal Motion

This year Cullman High School was fortunate to add Mrs. Cindy Pass to the music department. Mrs. Pass has taught music for three years. Although chorus was a big part of her life in high school, her chorus teacher had a "no-nonsense" attitude. Mrs. Pass became a chorus teacher to give students what she missed in her own high school chorus experience and to make chorus enjoyable for them. As for her new position at Cullman High School, Mrs. Pass says, "CHS expects their students to perform at high standards, and it means a great deal to me to extend academic performance to involve artistic performance to create a well rounded student who is confident and prepared for their journey ahead."

Honors Choir

Mrs. Pass cheerfully directs her Vocal Motion class.

Sponsored by Mrs. Brooks, Reach for the Stars is a new club that is designed to raise the self-esteem of its members. The club accomplishes this by participating in community service activities and having motivational speakers at the meetings. Reach for the Stars also teaches its members decision-making skills by allowing the members to choose among a variety of activities throughout the year.

A group of members of Reach for the Stars are with one of the guest speakers, Leah Patterson a social worker from CRMC.

LEO Club, sponsored by Mrs. Boozer, is a service club affiliated with Lion's International and the Cullman Lions Club. The Club was formed in the 1989-1990 school year and has grown to a membership of 198, being the largest club at CHS and the largest LEO club in the state. The LEO Club participated in many activities this year. The members worked in the concession stand at the fair, made a goal post banner for the CHS vs Hartselle football game, and sold "Sight Saver" mints during halftime of the CHS vs Curry football game. Later during the year, the members helped the Lions with the annual catfish/ham dinner, and the Kids Safety Fair, as well as served as ushers during the community concert performances.

The Cullman High School V. I. C. A. Club have used their skills in many ways to help the community. This year and last year the V. I. C. A. Club made bread boxes and cutting boards for Relay for Life. Last year through their hard work, they raised five-hundred dollars through the sells of the cutting boards. The club has meetings once a month, and hopes to be involved in more activities benefitting the community. The club sponsor is Mr. Hayden Faulk.

F.C.C.L.A., formerly known as FHA, has participated in many activities this year. The members are participating in the State Leadership Seminar and are entering in competency events. At Thanksgiving, Christmas, and during the spring, members work with many community projects. There are also many state meetings that select members will be asked to attend.

F.C.C.L.A. is sponsored by Ms Dollar who says that the mission of this club is "to promote growth and leadership development through family and consumer sciences education." The members of F.C.C.L.A. will develop skills as a family member through character development, communication, practical knowledge, and vocational preparation.

S.A.D.D., sponsored by Mrs. Bently and Mrs. Donaldson, participates in many community projects throughout the year. At Christmas, the club encourages students to sign a Christmas Tree ornament pledging to their school and to themselves that the holidays they will not drive under the influence; then when prom time rolls around, S.A.D.D. and Nationwide Insurance sponsor the Prom Promise Campaign which urges teenagers to remain sober throughout the prom weekend.

Band

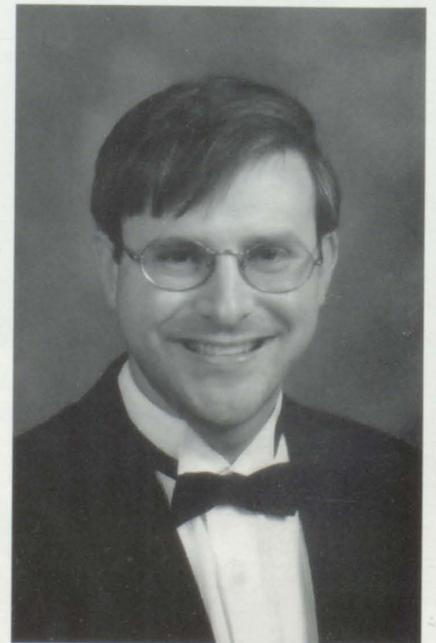

The CHS Bearcat Marching Band performed at all CHS football games and pep rallies. They also performed in the Cullman County Marching Band Exhibition and the Cullman County Fair Parade. This year the Marching Band received all superior ratings at the Mid-South Marching Festival in Birmingham. The colorguard and majorettes received "Best in Class" honors at Hoover. The Marching Band also performed "Seventy-six Trombones" at the annual American Bus Association Conference. They were representing the Broadway musical "The Music Man". The CHS Jazz Band performed frequently throughout the year. Highlights were the "Big Band Dance" in February at the Cullman Civic Center, and the Alabama Association of School Boards Annual Convention in December at the Wynfrey Hotel in Birmingham. The Symphonic and Concert Bands performed a Christmas Concert and a Spring Concert. The combined bands played their Christmas Concert selections for the school. They also performed at the District Festival and State Festival. The CHS Band took their annual spring trip to Cincinnati, Ohio, where they performed in the Dixie Classic Music Festival.

Mr. Garry Taylor directs The Star Spangled Banner before the Homecoming Game

“No one can ever realize the feelings of friendship between band members until they’ve experienced it, especially in colorguard. I’ll never forget how it feels to perform at football games and competitions with someone else throwing a rifle above your head. There has to be a lot of trust there.”

— Kate Hardeman

Drum majors Jessica Picogna and Becca Hirsbrunner salute.

“My experience as one of the drum majors this year has given me many memories, the chance to be a leader, and a different perspective about people in general. I believe I have become a better person from this opportunity.”

— Jessica Picogna

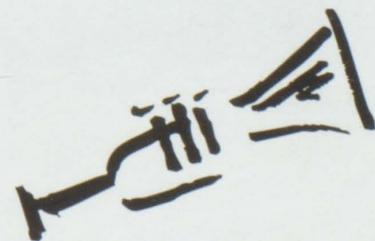

“I have greatly enjoyed my years in band. I have made many friends, from people here at Cullman High to people as far south as Dothan. Being in band has given memories to last a lifetime.”

— Becca Hirsbrunner

“This year was even more special for me than years past due to my involvement in the colorguard, who received best in class; performing in a Broadway production; and traveling to Cincinnati.”

— Leanna Hudson

During the Homecoming Pep Rally, Jason Harbison pays close attention to his job as "camera man" for CHS's t.v. station, C.A.T.S. 55.

C.A.T.S. 55, Cullman's Public Access Television Station, is governed by a board that was appointed by the City Council. The staff of C.A.T.S. 55 produces several programs including C.A.T.S. 55 Live and CHS News. C.A.T.S. 55 Live airs twice daily at 7:55 and 2:20. It showcases the morning and afternoon announcements. CHS News is a community program that airs twice each month and features the special people and events around Cullman. C.A.T.S. 55 also records special events in the community and replays them. In addition, the station airs "This Week at CMS" every other week. The station's newest program, called Community's Funniest Videos, began airing in February.

Art Club has been hard at work doing volunteer work for the community. You may have seen their handiwork around CHS in the form of banners and posters for sports games, t-shirt designs, art shows, and bulletin boards. Art Club supported the community by painting faces for United Way, decorating and making christmas cards for nursing homes, and painting a mural for the Primary School. The Art Club also offered "Studio Days". These were after school workshops for students intrested in pursuing further aspects of art.

There is a Time to Move Forward...

As the school year comes to a close, the students are happy to have survived another year and the changing of the Millennium. The new Millennium brings changes for each class. The Freshmen are proud to be Sophomores; the Sophomores are becoming upper classmen; after three long years, the Juniors become Seniors; and the Seniors go off to the world outside high school.

He just kept growing

and growing

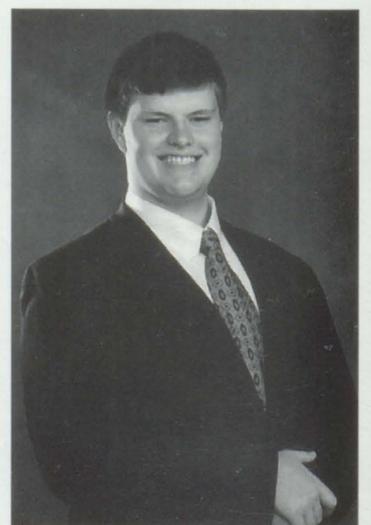

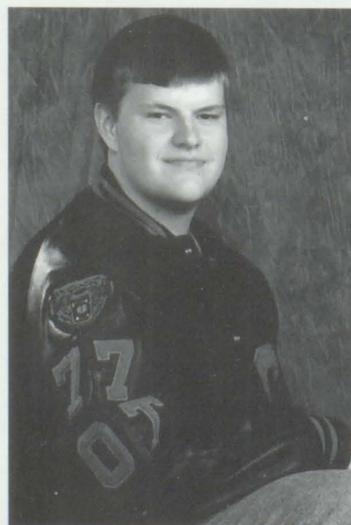

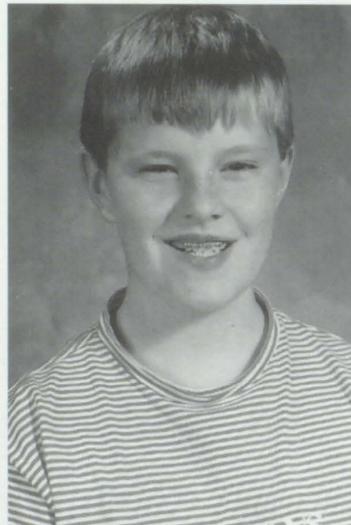

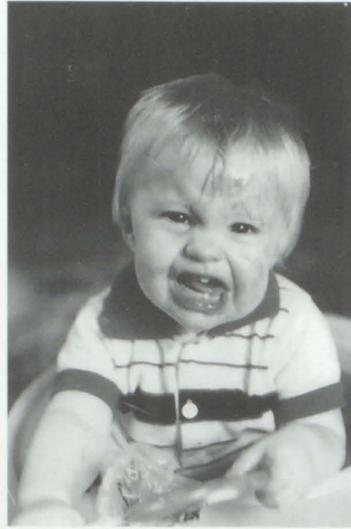

and growing

and growing...

And he will continue to grow.

We are very proud of what you have accomplished.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Josh,

You have strength like a rock,
laughter like a water fall,
love always flowering,
and the world would be sad and gray without you.
Always be careful.
Jason is very proud of you.
We are proud of you.

Love Forever,
Mom and Dad

To Jeremy,

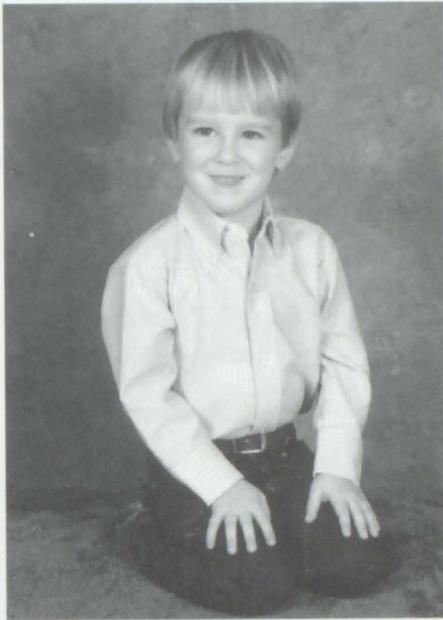

You have made

Sirinya,

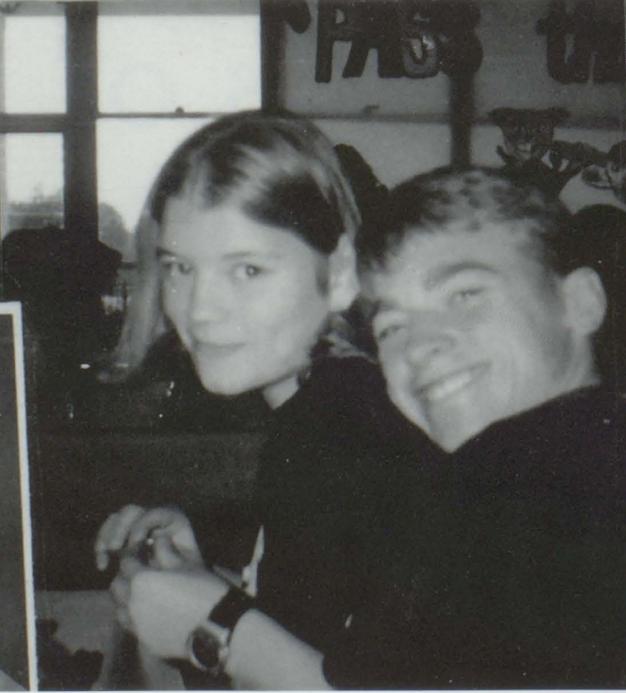

I can't believe how fast this year has flown by. It's hard to believe we're going to be Seniors in a few short months. I've enjoyed all the time we've spent together this year, like the basketball games, and when you've come to the soccer games. I've enjoyed the football games where we got to watch you cheer. Also when we went bowling that night & we got done at like 1:30 in the morning. But most of all I've enjoyed the chance I've had to get to know you better and become greater friends. Next year I hope our friendship will become even stronger. Have a wonderful summer and maybe we will hang out some. Take it easy.

Justin*

May the Good Lord be with you down every road you roam,
And may sunshine and happiness surround you when your far from home
And may you grow to be proud, dignified and true
And do unto others as you'd have done to you.

Be courageous and be brave, and in my HEART you'll always stay,
FOREVER YOUNG

May good fortune be with you, may your guiding light be strong
Build a stairway to Heaven with a princess or vagabond
And may you never love in vain, and in my HEART you'll always remain,
FOREVER YOUNG

And when you finally fly away, I'll be hoping that I served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime no one can ever tell
But whatever road you choose, I'm right behind you, win or lose,
FOREVER YOUNG!

Success is yours for the taking-Good Luck!!!!!!
We Love You- Mom, Dad, Grandma, and Cory

Roger Clemens helps the New York Yankees beat the Atlanta Braves in four games to win the 1999 World Series.

The Dallas Stars capture the Stanley Cup with Brett Hull's game-winning goal in triple overtime.

Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain lead the team in a 5-4 narrow, penalty-kick victory over China to win the Women's World Cup.

Tiger Woods' PGA Tour winning streak comes to an end when he is beaten at the Buick Invitational.

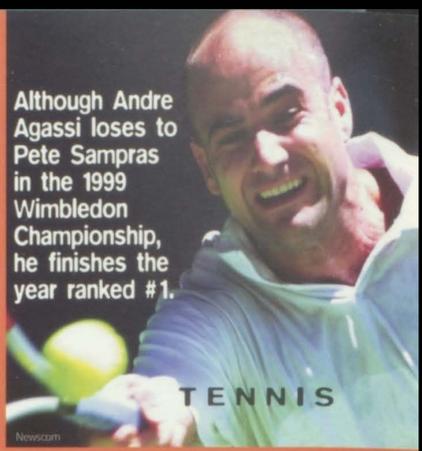

Quarterback Kurt Warner leads the Rams to a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV.

In sports, it was a year for firsts. Forty million viewers tuned in to watch the U.S. Women's Soccer Team triumph over China and Tiger Woods win six straight PGA tournaments. The Dallas Stars became the first team since the 1994 New York Rangers to win both the President's Trophy and the Stanley Cup in the same season. In addition, Lance Armstrong overcame a bout with cancer to win his first Tour de France.

Chicago Cubs' right fielder Sammy Sosa hammered out a big 63 homeruns in 1999.

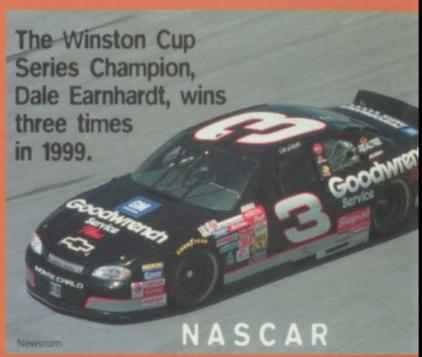

Although Andre Agassi loses to Pete Sampras in the 1999 Wimbledon Championship, he finishes the year ranked #1.

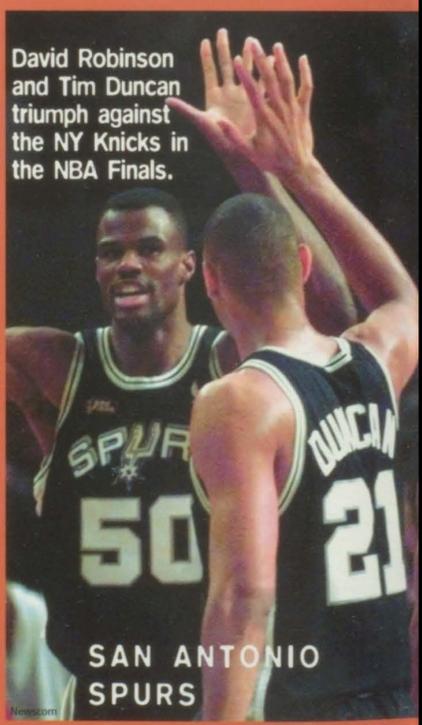

TENNIS

The Winston Cup Series Champion, Dale Earnhardt, wins three times in 1999.

NASCAR

David Robinson and Tim Duncan triumph against the NY Knicks in the NBA Finals.

SAN ANTONIO SPURS

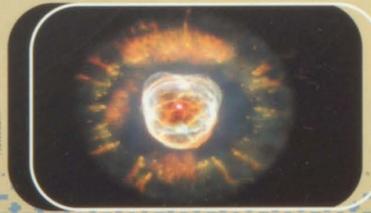

Even die-hard skiers jump on boards like Ross Powers to try the sport that's taking the slopes by storm.

DISCOVERY • MILLENNIUM • GOODBYE • WEATHER • DIS

The year 2000 was greeted with celebrations across the globe, including a fantastic fireworks display at the Eiffel Tower and religious ceremonies in Jerusalem. Looking back on 1999, we see a year filled with hope for the future, but also a year plagued by war and natural disaster. The conflict in Serbia kept the world on the edge of its seat, while earthquakes, tornadoes and winter storms focused our attention on international relief efforts. In 1999-2000, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities including John F. Kennedy Jr., Walter Payton and Charles Schulz.

WEATHER

The century came to a close with an upsurge of natural disasters. Hurricane Floyd caused $4.2 billion worth of damage on the East Coast while snowstorms crippled regions of the Northeast and Midwest. Internationally, earthquakes killed thousands in Turkey, Columbia and Taiwan.

MILLENNIUM

While some stockpiled Y2K supplies and safeguarded their computers against the "millennium bug," others rang in the new century with fireworks, parties and religious celebrations. While merchandise branding the date 01.01.00 filled stores, millennium countdown clocks were seen everywhere from billboards to post offices.

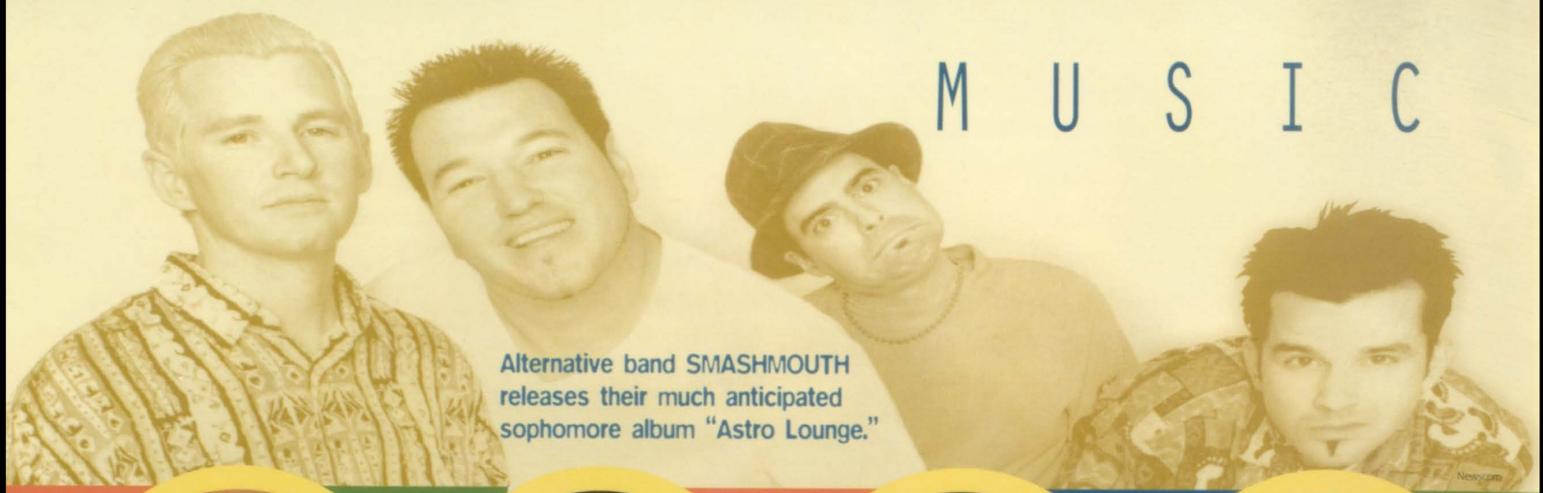

DISCOVERY

The Hubble Telescope, Earth's orbiting eye to the heavens, beamed back pictures of new planets and nebulas, while kinks in the NASA Mars Polar Lander mission delayed hopes of discovering more about the mysterious red planet.

GOODBYE

As we said goodbye to the century, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities. John F. Kennedy Jr. was killed in a private plane crash while Charles Schulz passed away on the night before his last "Peanuts" comic strip was to be published in Sunday papers around the world. Sports legends Walter Payton, Joe DiMaggio and Tom Landry also left us this year.

MUSIC

BACKSTREET BOYS

The Backstreet Boys release their smash album "Millennium" and take home the 1999 American Music Award® for Favorite Pop/Rock Band/Duo/Group.

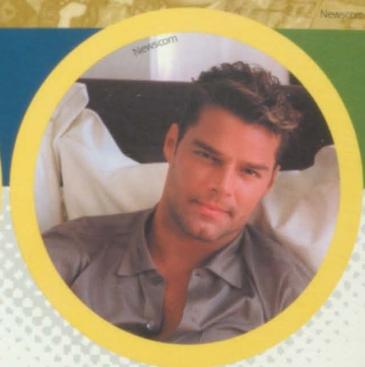

JENNIFER LOPEZ

Latina actress and singer Jennifer Lopez debuts her pop album "On the 6" scoring a dance hit with "If You Had My Love."

FAITH HILL/TIM MCGRAW

The country couple both receive nominations at the 1999 American Music Awards. Faith Hill's album "Breathe" debuts at #1 on the Billboard Top 200.

RICKY MARTIN

"Livin' La Vida Loca" and "She's All I Ever Had" take Ricky's first English album multi-platinum.

BRITNEY SPEARS

"Boy Bands" and Latin superstars lead the 1999-2000 music scene. 'N SYNC and Backstreet Boys keep fans screaming for their good looks and slick dance moves. Ex-Menudo vocalist Ricky Martin wows audiences with his first English album, and actress/singer Jennifer Lopez scores big with her own first album "On the 6." The biggest success story of the year, however, is former Mouseketeer Britney Spears' meteoric rise to fame via her debut LP "...Baby One More Time."

These cool cowgirls continue to enjoy the success of their breakthrough album "Wide Open Spaces."

TLC returns to the hip-hop scene with "Fan Mail," featuring the singles "Come On Down" and "No Scrubs."

BIG DADDY

Comedian Adam Sandler tries his hand at parenting to impress Joey Lauren Adams. Co-stars include Cole and Dylan Sprouse and SNL buddy Rob Schneider.

007: THE WORLD IS NOT ENOUGH

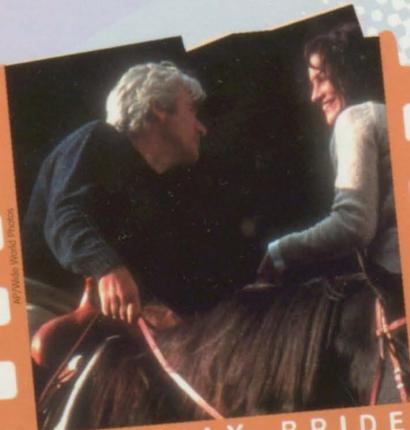

Returning as 007, Pierce Brosnan and beauty Denise Richards carry on the Bond legacy in this 19th installment of the films.

THE MUMMY

Brendan Fraser stars as a soldier in the Foreign Legion who helps unearth a wicked curse in turn-of-the-century Egypt.

Richard Gere and Julia Roberts reunite in this heartwarming love story about a skittish bride-to-be.

RUNAWAY BRIDE

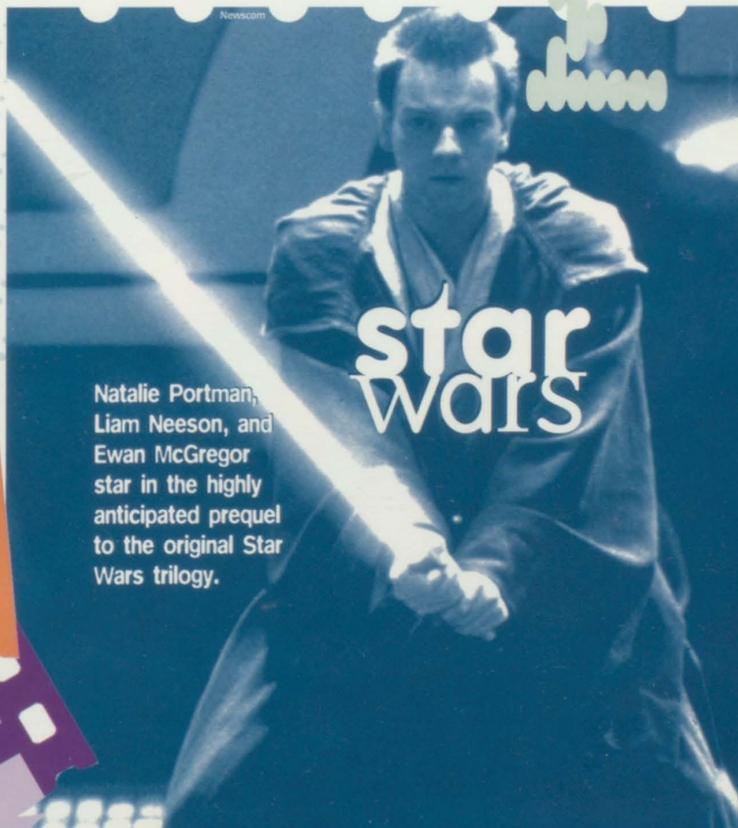

THE MATRIX

Incredible special effects and kung-fu fighting make this sci-fi thriller an instant classic. Keanu Reeves trained for months to pull off moves like this.

George Lucas makes history again with the 1999 release of "Star Wars: Episode 1 - The Phantom Menace." Star Wars fans waited in line days before the premiere in hopes of being one of the first to see the prequel.

"10 Things I Hate About You," a remake of The Taming of the Shrew, introduces newcomer Julia Stiles as a high school student who presents a challenge to her suitor Heath Ledger.

Keanu Reeves stars as a 21st century hacker in "The Matrix." This ground-breaking science fiction film excites audiences with computer-generated effects and superbly choreographed fight scenes.

Natalie Portman, Liam Neeson, and Ewan McGregor star in the highly anticipated prequel to the original Star Wars trilogy.

TIME OF YOUR LIFE

In a "Party of Five" spin-off, Jennifer Love Hewitt's character, Sara, moves from San Francisco to New York, striking out on her own in search of love, success and her estranged father.

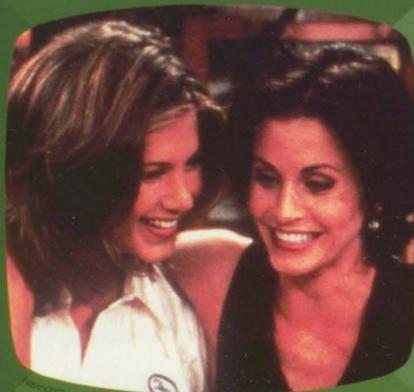

E. R.

Julianna Margulies, winner of four consecutive Emmy nominations for her role as head nurse, Carol Hathaway, enjoys the fifth season, with the rest of the "E.R." cast.

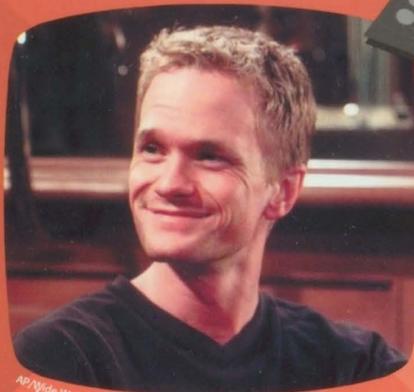

WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE

Contestants, chosen by a call-in selection process, compete to win increasing amounts of money up to $1,000,000. Regis Philbin coins the phrase of the year with "Is that your final answer?"

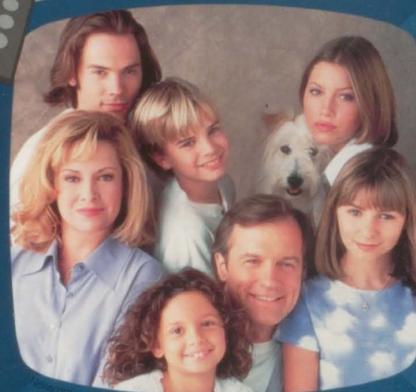

FRIENDS

As the leadoff series on NBC's "Must See TV" lineup, "Friends" continues to enjoy ratings success after six seasons, reaching an audience of 23.5 million people each week.

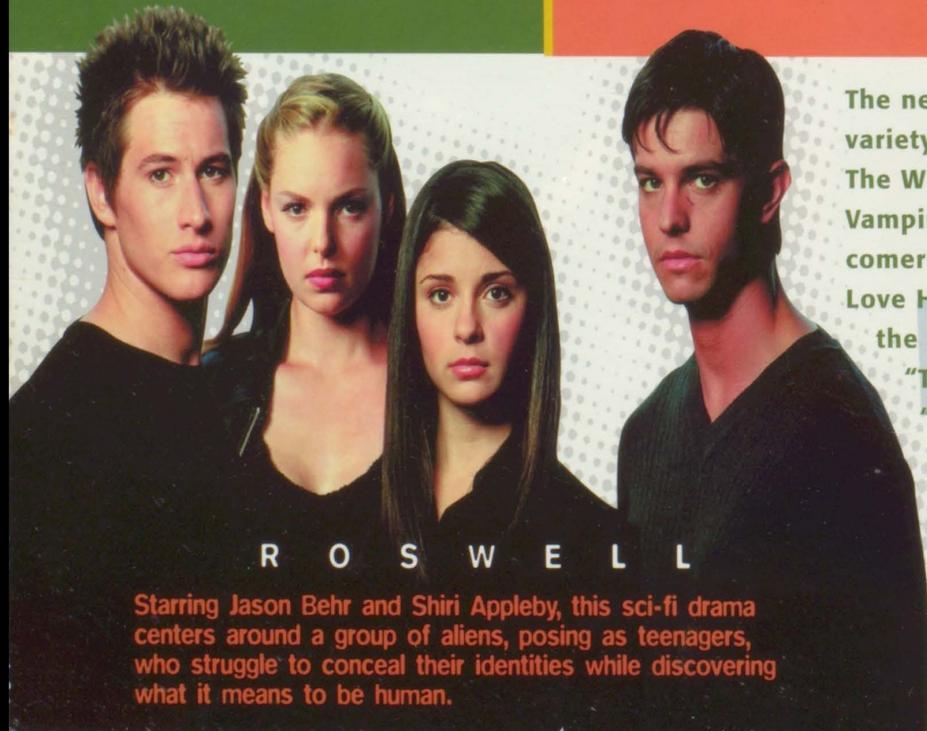

STARK RAVING MAD

Neil Patrick Harris (Doogie Howser, M.D.) stars as Henry McNeely, a young book editor who is thrust into the chaotic, and often hilarious, world of a bestselling horror writer.

7TH HEAVEN

Featuring cast members Jessica Biel and Barry Watson, the WB Network's wholesome "7th Heaven" continues to follow the trials and tribulations of the Camden family.

Starring Jason Behr and Shiri Appleby, this sci-fi drama centers around a group of aliens, posing as teenagers, who struggle to conceal their identities while discovering what it means to be human.

The networks presented us with a dazzling variety of shows, many of them teen-oriented. The WB Network led the way with "Buffy the Vampire Slayer," "Dawson's Creek" and newcomers, "Roswell" and "Popular." Jennifer Love Hewitt ventured out on her own, tackling the concrete jungle of New York City in "Time Of Your Life." Animated sitcom "The Simpsons" remained popular while cartoonist Matt Groening's newest series, "Futurama," gained a wider audience. Finally, talk show personality Regis Philbin crossed over to game shows asking the country, "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?"
